PROXY STATEMENT FOR THE SPECIAL MEETING OF KLEIN FINANCIAL, INC. SHAREHOLDERS and PROSPECTUS OF OLD NATIONAL BANCORP MERGER PROPOSED — YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The boards of directors of Klein Financial, Inc. (“Klein”) and Old National Bancorp (“Old National”) have unanimously approved an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which Klein will merge with and into Old National (the “Merger”). If the Merger Agreement is approved by the shareholders of Klein and all other closing conditions are satisfied, each shareholder of Klein will be entitled to receive 7.92 shares of Old National common stock (the “Exchange Ratio”) for each share of Klein common stock owned before the Merger, subject to certain adjustments as described in the Merger Agreement (the “Merger Consideration”). The Klein board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger on the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement is in the best interests of Klein and the Klein shareholders.

The Merger value will fluctuate with the market price of Old National common stock and will not be known at the time Klein shareholders vote on the Merger. Based on the $19.05 closing price of Old National’s common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on June 20, 2018, the date of execution of the Merger Agreement, the Exchange Ratio represented approximately $150.88 in value for each share of Klein common stock and an aggregate transaction value of approximately $433.8 million. Based on the $20.15 closing price of Old National’s common stock on August 23, 2018, the latest practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement and prospectus, the Exchange Ratio represented approximately $159.59 in value for each share of Klein common stock. Based on the Exchange Ratio and the number of shares of Klein common stock outstanding and issuable at the effective time of the Merger as of August 23, 2018, the number of shares of Old National common stock issuable in the Merger would be 22,771,631.52 reflecting an aggregate transaction value as of August 23, 2018 of approximately $458.8 million. The number of shares and values in this paragraph assume no adjustments to the Merger Consideration as described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Merger Consideration.” We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Old National (trading symbol “ONB”).

The Merger is conditioned upon, among other things, the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Klein shareholders. This document is a proxy statement that the Klein board of directors is using to solicit proxies for use at a special meeting of shareholders to be held on September 27, 2018. At the meeting, the Klein shareholders will be asked to (1) approve the Merger Agreement, (2) adjourn the meeting if necessary to solicit additional proxies, and (3) transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

This document is also a prospectus relating to Old National’s issuance of shares of Old National common stock in connection with the completion of the Merger.

For a discussion of certain risk factors relating to the Merger, see “Risk Factors” beginning on page 14.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the securities to be issued under this proxy statement and prospectus or determined if this proxy statement and prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The securities to be issued in connection with completion of the Merger are not savings or deposit accounts or other obligations of any bank or nonbank subsidiary of any of the parties, and they are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Deposit Insurance Fund or any other governmental agency.

This proxy statement and prospectus is dated August 23, 2018, and it is first being mailed to Klein shareholders on or about August 27, 2018.

TO BE HELD ON SEPTEMBER 27, 2018

To the Shareholders of Klein Financial, Inc.:

We will hold a special meeting of the shareholders of Klein Financial, Inc. ("Klein") on September 27, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., Central Time, at 1550 Audubon Rd, Chaska, Minnesota 55318, to consider and vote upon:

1. Merger Proposal. A proposal to approve the Merger Agreement pursuant to which Klein will merge with and into Old National.
2. Adjournment. A proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes present at the special meeting in person or by proxy to approve the Merger Agreement (the "Adjournment Proposal").
3. Other Matters. Such other matters as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment of the special meeting. The Klein board of directors is not aware of any such other matters as of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus.

The enclosed proxy statement and prospectus describes the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger in detail and includes, as Annex A, the complete text of the Merger Agreement. We urge you to read these materials for a description of the Merger Agreement and the proposed Merger. In particular, you should carefully read "Risk Factors" beginning on page 14 of the enclosed proxy statement and prospectus for a discussion of certain risk factors relating to the Merger.

The board of directors of Klein unanimously recommends that shareholders vote (1) "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement and (2) "FOR" approval of the Adjournment Proposal. The board of directors of Klein fixed the close of business on August 21, 2018, as the record date for determining the holders of Klein voting common stock entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT. The Merger Agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Klein common stock entitled to vote. If you do not return your proxy or do not vote in person at the special meeting, the effect will be the same as a vote against the Merger Agreement. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we urge you to date, sign and return promptly the enclosed proxy in the accompanying envelope. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the special meeting by sending a written notice of revocation, submitting a new proxy or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Under Minnesota law, if the Merger is completed, Klein shareholders of record who do not vote to approve the Merger Agreement, and otherwise comply with the applicable provisions of Minnesota law pertaining to objecting shareholders, will be entitled to exercise dissenters' rights and obtain payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of Klein common stock by following the procedures set forth in detail in this proxy statement and prospectus. A copy of the sections of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act pertaining to dissenters' rights are included as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus.

By Order of the Board of Directors

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: What am I voting on?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Klein will merge with and into Old National. Old National would be the surviving entity in the Merger, and Klein would no longer be a separate company.

Additionally, you are being asked to vote to approve the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: What will I receive in the Merger?

A: If the Merger is completed, each share of Klein common stock will be converted into the right to receive, as set forth in the Merger Agreement, 7.92 shares of Old National common stock (the “Exchange Ratio”), subject to adjustment as summarized below (the “Merger Consideration”). If the Klein Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity is less than the Minimum Shareholders’ Equity as of the end of the month prior to the effective time of the Merger (as those terms are defined in the Merger Agreement), the Exchange Ratio will be decreased as described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Merger Consideration.”

In addition, unless Old National increases the Exchange Ratio by exercising its option to increase the Exchange Ratio under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Klein will have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement pursuant to the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Reasons for Termination,” at any time during the five day period commencing on the first date on which all regulatory approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger have been received (the “Calculation Date”) if the Old National Market Value on the Calculation Date is less than $15.75 per share. Such termination would be effective on the 10th day following the Calculation Date. The Old National Market Value shall mean the volume weighted average price of a share of Old National common stock for the 15 consecutive trading days period ending on the day immediately preceding the Calculation Date.

Q: Will the Exchange Ratio adjust based on the trading price of Old National common stock prior to closing?

A: No. The Exchange Ratio will not increase or decrease solely due to changes in the trading price of Old National common stock prior to the closing of the Merger. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustment as described above.

Q: What is the value of the per share Merger Consideration?

A: The per share value of the Merger Consideration for Klein shareholders will fluctuate as the market price of Old National common stock fluctuates before the completion of the Merger. This price will not be known at the time of the Klein special meeting and may be more or less than the current price of Old National common stock or the price of Old National common stock at the time of the special meeting. Based on the $19.05 closing stock price of Old National common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on June 20, 2018, the trading day immediately preceding the public announcement date of the Merger, the value of the per share Merger Consideration for Klein shareholders would be approximately $150.88, assuming no adjustments to the Merger Consideration as described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Merger Consideration.” Based on the $20.15 closing stock price of Old National common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on August 23, 2018, the latest practicable date before the printing of this proxy statement and prospectus, the value of the per share Merger Consideration for Klein shareholders would be approximately $159.59, assuming no adjustments to the Merger Consideration as described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Merger Consideration.” We urge you to obtain current market quotations for shares of Old National common stock.

Table of Contents

Q: When will shareholders receive their share of the Merger Consideration?

A: Promptly after the effective time of the Merger, Old National will mail to each holder of Klein common stock a letter of transmittal with a form providing instructions for the exchange of shares for the Merger Consideration. Upon Old National's receipt of a properly completed and executed letter of transmittal, Old National will issue to each holder of Klein common stock a statement of ownership of book-entry shares representing that number of shares of Old National common stock (including fractional shares) that each holder of Klein common stock has the right to receive.

Q: Why do Klein and Old National want to engage in the Merger?

A: Klein believes that the Merger will provide its shareholders with substantial benefits, and Old National believes that the Merger will further its strategic growth plans generally and specifically in Minnesota. To review the reasons for the Merger in more detail, see "Proposal 1 — The Merger — Klein's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Board of Directors" beginning on page 28 and "Proposal 1 — The Merger — Old National's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 31.

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote on the Merger Agreement?

A: You should review "Risk Factors" beginning on page 14.

Q: Will Old National shareholders receive any shares as a result of the Merger?

A: No. Old National shareholders will continue to own the same number of Old National shares they owned before the effective time of the Merger.

Q: Who is entitled to vote on each of the matters to be considered at the special meeting?

A: Shareholders of record of Klein's voting common stock at the close of business on August 21, 2018, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to vote on each of the proposals at the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were 2,822,000 shares of common stock entitled to vote at the meeting.

Q: How many votes may I cast?

A: Each share of Klein voting common stock is entitled to one vote on each proposal at the special meeting. The proxy card included with this proxy statement indicates the number of voting shares owned by an account attributable to you.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal at the Klein special meeting and what happens if I do not return a proxy or otherwise do not vote?

A: Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the 2,822,000 shares of Klein voting common stock issued and outstanding on the record date.

Because the required vote of Klein shareholders on the Merger Agreement is based upon the number of issued and outstanding shares of Klein common stock entitled to vote rather than upon the number of shares actually voted, a failure to vote and abstentions will have the same practical effect as a vote "AGAINST" approval of the Merger Agreement.

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Daniel Klein, the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, Alan Klein, the Vice Chairman and Executive Vice President, and James Klein, the Vice Chairman, executed voting agreements pursuant to which they agreed to vote their shares and shares held by trusts (subject to their fiduciary duties and the applicable trust agreement), under which they are individually beneficial owners in favor of the Merger Agreement. As of the record date, these shareholders beneficially owned 1,642,500 shares of Klein voting common stock, or approximately 58.2% of the issued and outstanding shares of Klein voting common stock. Accordingly, Klein expects that the Merger Agreement will be approved at the special meeting.

Approval of the Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote, whether or not a quorum is present. A failure to vote will have no effect on this proposal, but abstentions will have the same practical effect as a vote “AGAINST” approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

If you properly complete and sign your proxy but do not indicate how your shares of Klein voting common stock should be voted on a proposal, the shares of Klein voting common stock represented by your proxy will be voted as the Klein board of directors recommends and therefore, “FOR” approval of the Merger Agreement, and “FOR” approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: Am I entitled to exercise dissenters’ rights instead of receiving the per share Merger Consideration for my shares of Klein common stock?

A: Klein shareholders are entitled to dissenters’ rights under Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act (the “MBCA”) provided they follow the procedures and satisfy the conditions set forth in Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA. For more information regarding dissenters’ rights, see “Dissenters’ Rights of Klein Shareholders” beginning on page 58 of this proxy statement and prospectus.

In addition, a copy of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA are attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus. Failure to strictly comply with Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA may result in your waiver of, or inability to, exercise dissenters’ rights.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After reading this proxy statement and prospectus, you may vote in one of two ways: (1) by mail (by completing and signing the proxy that accompanies this proxy statement and prospectus); or (2) in person (by either delivering the completed proxy or by casting a ballot if attending the special meeting). In the event that you choose not to exercise your vote in person, you should mail your signed proxy in the accompanying pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope as soon as possible so that your shares can be voted at the September 27, 2018 Klein special meeting.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete and submit a new proxy, dated at a date later than your most recent proxy. Third, you can attend the special meeting and vote in person. Your attendance at the special meeting will not, however, by itself revoke your proxy.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: The holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Klein common stock entitled to vote as of the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the special meeting to constitute a quorum. In determining whether a quorum is present, shareholders who abstain will be treated as present for determining the presence or absence of a quorum.

Q: What happens if the Merger is not completed?

A: Klein and Old National expect to complete the Merger in the fourth quarter of 2018. However, neither Klein nor Old National can assure you of when or if the Merger will be completed. Klein and Old National must first obtain the approval of Klein shareholders for the Merger, as well as obtain necessary regulatory approvals and satisfy certain other standard closing conditions, as described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to the Merger.” If the Merger is not completed, Klein shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares and will continue to be Klein shareholders. Each of Klein and Old National will remain independent companies. Under certain circumstances, Klein may be required to pay Old National a fee with respect to the termination of the Merger Agreement and Old National may be required to pay Klein a fee with respect to the termination of the Merger Agreement, as described under “The Merger Agreement — Termination Fee.”

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as possible. We must obtain the necessary regulatory approvals and the approval of the Merger Agreement by Klein shareholders at the special meeting, and the Klein and Old National must satisfy certain other standard closing conditions, as described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to the Merger.” We currently expect to complete the Merger in the fourth quarter of 2018.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the Merger to me?

A: The Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). If the Merger qualifies, Klein shareholders will not recognize gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Klein common stock for shares of Old National common stock in the Merger.

As a condition to the closing, each of Klein and Old National must receive an opinion from Krieg DeVault LLP to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1) of the Code. See “United States Federal Income Tax Consequences” beginning on page 74 for a more complete discussion of the United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Your tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Klein common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote.

As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of Klein (and their affiliates), as a group, beneficially owned 2,822,000 shares of Klein voting common stock, 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of Klein voting common stock. In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Daniel Klein, Alan Klein and James Klein executed voting agreements pursuant to which they agreed to vote their shares and shares held by trusts (subject to their fiduciary duties and the applicable trust agreement), under which they are individually beneficial owners in favor of the Merger Agreement. As of the record date, these shareholders beneficially owned 1,642,500 shares of Klein voting common stock, or approximately 58.2% of the issued and outstanding shares of Klein voting common stock. Accordingly, Klein expects that the Merger Agreement will be approved at the special meeting.

No approval of the Merger Agreement by Old National shareholders is required.

The Merger and the Merger Agreement (pages 23 and 43)

The Merger Agreement provides that, if all of the conditions to closing are satisfied or waived, Klein will be merged with and into Old National, with Old National surviving. Effective simultaneously with the consummation of the Merger, KleinBank will be merged with and into Old National Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Old National (the “Bank Merger”). We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement, which is included as Annex A to this proxy statement and prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein.

What Klein Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (page 43)

If the Merger is completed, each share of Klein common stock will be converted into 7.92 shares of Old National common stock, provided that if the Klein Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity is less than Minimum Shareholders’ Equity as of the Determination Date, the Exchange Ratio will be decreased as provided in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Termination Fee.” In addition if the Old National Market Value on the Calculation Date is less than $15.75, Klein will have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement unless Old National increases the Exchange Ratio by exercising its option to increase the Exchange Ratio under the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of Klein Board of Directors; Klein’s Reasons for the Merger (page 28)

The Klein board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger on the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement is in the best interests of Klein and the Klein shareholders. The Klein board of directors unanimously recommends that Klein shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Agreement. In reaching its determination, the Klein board of directors considered a number of factors, which are described in the section entitled “Proposal 1 — The Merger — Klein’s Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Board of Directors” beginning on page 28. Because of the wide variety of factors considered, the Klein board of directors did not believe it practicable, nor did it attempt, to quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision.

The Klein board of directors also unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

Dissenters’ Rights of Klein Shareholders (page 58)

Klein shareholders of record have dissenters’ rights under the MBCA in connection with the Merger.

Table of Contents

Klein shareholders who do not vote in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement and who otherwise comply with applicable provisions of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA will be entitled to exercise dissenters' rights thereunder. Any shares of Klein common stock held by a Klein shareholder as of the record date who has not voted in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement and who has demanded appraisal for such shares in accordance with the MBCA will not be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration, unless such Klein shareholder fails to perfect, withdraws or otherwise loses such shareholder's dissenters' rights under the MBCA. If, after the consummation of the Merger, such holder of Klein common stock fails to perfect, withdraws or otherwise loses his, her or its dissenters' rights, each such share will be treated as if it had been converted as of the consummation of the Merger into a right to receive the Merger Consideration. The relevant provisions of the MBCA are included as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus.

You are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety. Due to the complexity of the procedures for exercising your dissenters' rights, Klein shareholders who are considering exercising such rights are encouraged to seek the advice of legal counsel.

Failure to strictly comply with these provisions will result in the loss of dissenters' rights. See the section entitled "Dissenters' Rights of Klein Shareholders" beginning on page 58 of this proxy statement and prospectus and the text of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA reproduced in their entirety as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus for additional information.

Voting Agreements (page 57)

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Daniel Klein, Alan Klein and James Klein executed voting agreements pursuant to which they agreed to vote their shares and shares held by trusts (subject to their fiduciary duties and the applicable trust agreement), under which they are individually beneficial owners in favor of the Merger Agreement. As of the record date, these shareholders beneficially owned 1,642,500 shares of Klein voting common stock, or approximately 58.2% of the issued and outstanding shares of Klein voting common stock. Accordingly, Klein expects that the Merger Agreement will be approved at the special meeting.

Lock-Up Agreements (page 57)

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Daniel Klein, Alan Klein and James Klein executed lock-up agreements, and certain other holders of Klein common stock will execute lock-up agreements prior to the closing, covering in the aggregate approximately 18,200,000 shares of Old National common stock, assuming no adjustments to the Merger Consideration, or approximately 80% of the Old National common stock issued in the Merger. Such shareholders agree not to sell or enter into any transactions to dispose of their shares of Old National common stock received in the Merger, or publicly disclose an intention to effect any such transaction, for a period of 60 to 90 days after the Effective Time of the Merger, which may be waived by Old National's prior written consent. As to the certain other shareholders who will execute lock-up agreements prior to the closing, such restrictions will apply only to 60% of each of these shareholders' shares of Old National common stock received as Merger Consideration.

Opinion of Klein's Financial Advisor (page 32)

In connection with the Merger, the Klein board of directors received an oral and a written opinion, dated June 20, 2018, from Klein's financial advisor, Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P. ("Sandler O'Neill"), to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based on and subject to the various factors, assumptions and limitations described in the opinion, the Merger Consideration described in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Klein common stock. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's written opinion, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O’Neill in rendering its opinion, is attached to this document as Annex B. You should read the opinion carefully and in its entirety. The opinion of Sandler O’Neill is directed to the Klein board of directors, is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Klein common stock in the Merger as of the date of the opinion, does not address any other aspect of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and does not constitute a recommendation to any Klein shareholder as to how to vote at the Klein special meeting or any other matter relating to the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals (page 56)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Merger cannot be completed until Old National receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Minnesota Department of Commerce, the approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the “OCC”) and the approval or waiver of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Federal Reserve Board”). Old National has filed an application with the OCC and Federal Reserve Board for approval. The Minnesota Department of Commerce only requires a notification filing, which has been provided by Old National.

Issued Old National Shares Will be Eligible for Trading (page 57)

The shares of Old National common stock to be issued upon completion of the Merger will be eligible for trading on the Nasdaq Global Select Market.

Conditions to the Merger (page 51)

The respective obligations of Old National and Klein to consummate the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver, on or before the effective time of the Merger, of a number of conditions, including:

- the shareholders of Klein shall have approved and adopted the Merger Agreement;
- approval of the Merger and the Bank Merger by the appropriate regulatory authorities;
- the consummation of the Merger and the Bank Merger shall not be illegal or otherwise prohibited and no order, injunction or other legal restraint preventing the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger is in effect;
- the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, relating to the shares of Old National common stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, must have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933, and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued or threatened by the SEC;
- the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct as of the effective time of the Merger or as otherwise required in the Merger Agreement, unless the inaccuracies do not or would not reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect;
- the obligations of the parties in the Merger Agreement must have been performed in all material respects;
- the parties must have received the respective closing deliverables of the other party to the Merger Agreement;
- dissenting shares must represent no more than 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of Klein common stock;
- Old National has offered to enter into a tax indemnity letter with each Klein shareholder;

Table of Contents

- Klein and Old National must have received an opinion from Krieg DeVault LLP (“Krieg DeVault”), dated as of the closing date, to the effect that the Merger constitutes a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1) of the Code;
- no person (other than a holder of shares of Klein common stock) will have asserted that such person (1) is the owner of, or has the right to acquire or to obtain ownership of, any capital stock of or any other voting, equity or ownership interest in, either of Klein or KleinBank or (2) is entitled to any of the Merger Consideration;
- Klein’s Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity (computed in accordance with the Merger Agreement), as of the end of the month prior to the effective time of the Merger, shall be at least equal to the Minimum Shareholders’ Equity; and
- Klein shareholders shall have executed lock-up agreements to restrict the sale of no less than 80% of the Old National common stock received by them for sixty (60) to ninety (90) days after the effective time of the Merger, which may be waived by Old National’s prior written consent.

We cannot be certain when, or if, the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the Merger will be completed.

Old National or Klein may mutually agree at any time to terminate the Merger Agreement without completing the Merger, even if the Klein shareholders have approved it. Also, either party may decide, without the consent of the other party, to terminate the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including (1) if the Merger is not consummated by March 31, 2019 (but only if the party who is terminating the Merger Agreement did not breach the Merger Agreement in a way that caused the Merger to fail to occur on or before March 31, 2019), (2) if any governmental entity has issued a final and nonappealable order or taken any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Merger or (3) if the Klein shareholders do not approve the Merger Agreement at the Klein special meeting. In addition, either party may terminate the Merger Agreement if there is a breach of the Merger Agreement by the other party that would cause the failure of conditions to the terminating party’s obligation to close, unless the breach is capable of being cured and is cured by the earlier of March 31, 2019 or the date that is 30 days following written notice of the breach.

Old National has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Klein board (1) fails to recommend in this proxy statement and prospectus that the Klein shareholders approve the Merger Agreement, or withdraws, modifies or qualifies such recommendation in a manner adverse to Old National, or resolves to do so, or fails to reaffirm such recommendation within five business days after Old National requests in writing that such action be taken, (2) recommends or endorses an acquisition proposal or (3) breaches certain obligations, including with respect to the non-solicitation of acquisition proposals or calling a meeting of its shareholders and recommending that they approve the Merger Agreement.

Old National has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if the dollar amount of all remedial or other corrective actions and measures required by the applicable lease or applicable environmental laws and regulations to be taken with respect to Klein’s owned or leased real property or any adjoining properties is estimated to exceed, in the aggregate, $3,000,000.

Klein has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Old National Market Value on the Calculation Date is below $15.75 and Old National does not increase the Exchange Ratio by exercising its option to increase the Exchange Ratio under the terms of the Merger Agreement. Klein also has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement to pursue an alternative transaction that its board of directors has determined, in exercising its fiduciary duties, is superior to the Merger.

Termination Fee (page 55)

Old National is required to pay Klein $2,000,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated by either party as a result of the failure to obtain any of the bank regulatory approvals and such failure is a result of a regulatory issue directly and solely related to Old National. Klein is required to pay Old National a $17,078,724 termination fee in connection with the termination of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving alternative acquisition proposals with respect to Klein, changes in the recommendation of the Klein board, and certain breaches of the Merger Agreement by Klein, and if the Merger Agreement is terminated due to Klein failing to obtain the requisite shareholder vote at the duly convened Klein meeting of shareholders or at any adjournment thereof at which a vote on the approval of the Merger Agreement was taken.

Interests of Certain Directors and Executive Officers of Klein in the Merger That are Different From Yours (page 61)

You should be aware that some of Klein's directors and executive officers may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as shareholders. The Klein board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in approving the Merger Agreement.

Additionally, Old National is obligated under the Merger Agreement to provide continuing indemnification to the officers and directors of Klein and KleinBank for a period of six years following the Merger and to provide such directors and officers with directors' and officers' liability insurance for a period of six years following the Merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (page 57)

The Merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Rights of Shareholders After the Merger (page 63)

When the Merger is completed, Klein shareholders, whose rights are currently governed by the Klein articles of incorporation and by-laws, will become Old National shareholders, and their rights then will be governed by Old National's articles of incorporation and by-laws. Old National is organized under Indiana law and Klein is organized under Minnesota law. To review the differences in the rights of shareholders under each company's governing documents, see "Comparison of the Rights of Shareholders" beginning on page 63.

United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 74)

The Merger is intended to qualify as a "reorganization" for United States federal income tax purposes. If the Merger qualifies, Klein shareholders will not recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes on the exchange of shares of Klein common stock for shares of Old National common stock in the Merger.

To review the tax consequences of the Merger to Klein shareholders in greater detail, please see "United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 74.

date indicated, all of which is referred to as “pro forma” information. In presenting the comparative pro forma information for certain time periods, it has been assumed that Old National and Klein had been merged throughout those periods along with certain other assumptions.

The information listed as “Pro Forma Equivalent Klein Share” was obtained by multiplying the “Pro Forma Combined” amounts by an Exchange Ratio of 7.92, assuming no adjustments to the Merger Consideration as described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Merger Consideration.” This information is presented to reflect the fact that Klein shareholders will receive shares of Old National common stock for each share of Klein common stock exchanged in the Merger. It is also anticipated that the combined company will derive financial benefits from the Merger that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the merged company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect these benefits and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. Further, the pro forma information below excludes one-time expenses related to the Merger. The pro forma information also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had the companies been combined during these periods.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus (See “Where You Can Find More Information”), including the risk factors included in Old National’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017, you should consider carefully the risk factors described below in deciding how to vote for the proposals presented in this proxy statement and prospectus. You should keep these risk factors in mind when you read forward-looking statements in this document and in the documents incorporated by reference into this document. Please refer to the section of this proxy statement and prospectus titled “Caution About Forward-Looking Statements.”

Klein shareholders cannot be certain of the value of the Merger Consideration they will receive, because the market price of Old National common stock will fluctuate and the Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustment.

Upon completion of the Merger, each share of Klein common stock will be converted into the Merger Consideration, which consists of Old National common stock. The Exchange Ratio is subject to downward adjustment, as set forth in the Merger Agreement and described in this proxy statement and prospectus in the event that Klein’s Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity is less than the Minimum Shareholders’ Equity. See “The Merger Agreement — Merger Consideration” for a more complete discussion of the Merger Consideration to be paid in the Merger.

Additionally, the market value of the Merger Consideration may vary from the closing price of Old National common stock on the date the Merger was announced, on the date that this document was mailed to Klein shareholders, on the date of the special meeting of the Klein shareholders and on the date the Merger is completed and thereafter. Any change in the Exchange Ratio or the market price of Old National common stock prior to completion of the Merger will affect the number of shares of Old National common stock or the market value of the Merger Consideration that Klein shareholders will receive upon completion of the Merger. Accordingly, at the time of the special meeting, Klein shareholders will not know or be able to calculate with certainty the amount or the market value of the Merger Consideration they would receive upon completion of the Merger. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in business, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond Old National’s or Klein’s control. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Old National common stock and for shares of Klein common stock before you vote.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms, and the Merger may not be completed, which could have a negative impact on Klein.

The Merger Agreement is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled, or in certain cases, waived by Old National or Klein, as applicable, in order to close the Merger. Those conditions include: Klein shareholder approval, regulatory approvals, the continued accuracy of certain representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of certain covenants and agreements. In particular, Old National is not obligated to close the Merger if Klein’s Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity, as of the end of the month prior to the effective time of the Merger, is not at least equal to the Minimum Shareholders’ Equity, disregarding any transaction costs.

In addition, certain circumstances exist where Klein may choose to terminate the Merger Agreement, including a decline in Old National’s share price to below a certain threshold set forth in the Merger Agreement. See “The Merger Agreement — Merger Consideration” for a more complete discussion of the Merger Consideration to be paid in the Merger and “The Merger Agreement — Termination” for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the Merger Agreement could be terminated. There can be no assurance that the conditions to closing the Merger will be fulfilled or that the Merger will be completed.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences to Klein, including:

- Klein's business may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger;
- Klein may have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger;
- Klein may experience negative reactions from its customers, vendors and employees; and
- The reputation of Klein may be tarnished by the process undertaken with Old National, which may adversely impact its future operations.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated and the Klein board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, under certain circumstances, Klein may be required to pay Old National a termination fee of $17,078,724. Klein shareholders cannot be certain that Klein would be able to find a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price Old National has agreed to pay in the Merger.

Klein shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management.

The Klein shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Klein board of directors and on other matters affecting Klein. When the Merger occurs, each Klein shareholder will become a shareholder of Old National with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is much smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of Klein. Because of this, the Klein shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Old National than they now have on the management and policies of Klein.

Old National may be unable to successfully integrate KleinBank's operations and retain KleinBank's employees.

KleinBank will be merged with and into Old National Bank effective simultaneously with the consummation of the Merger. The difficulties of merging the operations of KleinBank with Old National Bank include:

- integrating personnel with diverse business backgrounds;
- combining different corporate cultures; and
- retaining key employees.

The process of integrating operations could cause an interruption of, or loss of momentum in, the activities of Old National, Old National Bank or KleinBank, and the loss of key personnel. The integration of KleinBank with Old National Bank will require the experience and expertise of certain key employees of KleinBank who are expected to be retained by Old National. However, there can be no assurances that Old National will be successful in retaining these employees for the time period necessary to successfully integrate KleinBank into Old National Bank. The diversion of management's attention and any delays or difficulties encountered in connection with the merger and integration of KleinBank into Old National Bank could have an adverse effect on the business and results of operations of Old National or Old National Bank.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the Merger Agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Klein.

Until the completion of the Merger, with some exceptions, Klein is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging, or participating in any discussion of, or otherwise considering, any inquiries or proposals that may lead to an acquisition proposal, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person or entity other than Old National. In addition, Klein has agreed to pay a termination fee of $17,078,724 to Old National if (1) Old National terminates the Merger Agreement because the Klein board changes its recommendation, enters into an agreement for an alternative transaction or fails to reaffirm its recommendation within five business days of Old National requesting it do so, (2) either party terminates the Merger Agreement because the Merger has not occurred before March 31, 2019, and prior to the termination, an acquisition proposal was made known, and within 12 months after termination Klein enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal, (3) either party terminates the Merger Agreement because the approval of the Klein shareholders has not been obtained and within 12 months after termination Klein enters into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal, or (4) Klein terminates the Merger Agreement to pursue an alternative transaction that its board of directors has determined, in exercising its fiduciary duties, is superior to the Merger. For more information regarding the termination fee, see the section entitled “The Merger Agreement —Termination Fee” beginning on page 55 of this proxy statement and prospectus. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Klein even though such other companies might be willing to offer greater value to the Klein shareholders than Old National has offered in the Merger Agreement. The payment of the termination fee also could have a material adverse effect on Klein’s financial condition.

Certain of Klein’s executive officers and directors have interests that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of the Klein shareholders generally.

Certain of Klein’s executive officers and directors have interests in the Merger that are in addition to, or different from, the interests of the Klein shareholders. The Klein board of directors was aware of these interests when it approved the Merger Agreement. For a more detailed discussion of these interests, see “Interests of Certain Directors and Officers of Klein in the Merger” beginning on page 61.

The fairness opinion obtained by Klein will not reflect changes in the relative values of Old National and Klein between the time the opinion was obtained and the effective time of the Merger.

The fairness opinion of Sandler O’Neill was dated as of June 20, 2018. Klein does not intend to obtain any update of the Sandler O’Neill fairness opinion. Changes in the operations and prospects of Old National and Klein, general market and economic conditions, and other factors both within and outside of Old National’s and Klein’s control may alter the relative value of the companies. Therefore, the Sandler O’Neill opinion does not address the fairness of the Merger Consideration as of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, the date of the special meeting or at the time the Merger will be completed.

The Merger may fail to qualify as a reorganization for federal tax purposes, resulting in your recognition of taxable gain or loss in respect of your Klein shares and Klein may be subject to significant tax liability at the corporate level.

The Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1) of the Code. Although the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) will not be requested to provide a ruling on the matter, Old National and Klein will, as a condition to closing, each obtain an opinion from Krieg DeVault that the Merger will constitute a reorganization for federal income tax purposes. This opinion does not bind the IRS or preclude the IRS from adopting a contrary position. If the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, you generally would recognize gain or loss, as applicable, on each share of Klein common stock surrendered in an amount equal to the difference between your adjusted tax basis in that share and the fair market value of the Old National common stock received in exchange for that share upon completion of the Merger. Furthermore, if the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, Old National, as successor to Klein, may incur a significant tax liability resulting from a taxable sale of Klein’s assets for United States federal income tax purposes.

The shares of Old National common stock to be received by Klein shareholders as a result of the Merger will have different rights from the shares of Klein common stock.

The rights associated with Klein common stock are different from the rights associated with Old National common stock. See “Comparison of the Rights of Shareholders” beginning on page 63 for a discussion of the different rights associated with Old National common stock.

Each party is subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending, which could adversely affect each party’s business and operations.

In connection with the pendency of the Merger, it is possible that some customers and other persons with whom Old National or Klein has a business relationship may delay or defer certain business decisions or might seek to terminate, change or renegotiate their relationships with Old National or Klein, as the case may be, as a result of the Merger, which could negatively affect Old National’s or Klein’s respective revenues, earnings and cash flows, as well as the market price of Old National common stock or the value of Klein common stock, regardless of whether the Merger is completed.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Klein is subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to completing the Merger, which may adversely affect its ability to execute certain of its business strategies, including the ability in certain cases to enter into or amend contracts, acquire or dispose of assets, incur indebtedness or incur capital expenditures. Such limitations could negatively affect Klein’s businesses and operations prior to the completion of the Merger.

The Klein board of directors is sending you this proxy statement and prospectus and proxy to use at the special meeting. At the special meeting, the Klein board of directors will ask you to vote (1) on a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, and (2) on a proposal to approve the Adjournment Proposal. Klein does not expect any other items of business to be presented at the special meeting. If other matters do properly come before the special meeting, the accompanying proxy gives discretionary authority to the persons named in the proxy to vote on any other matters brought before the meeting. Those persons intend to vote the proxies in accordance with their judgment.

The special meeting will be held on September 27, 2018, at 10:00 a.m., Central Time, at 1550 Audubon Road, Chaska, Minnesota 55318.

Record Date, Voting Rights, Quorum, and Required Vote

Klein has set the close of business on August 21, 2018, as the record date for determining the holders of Klein voting common stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only holders of Klein voting common stock at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 2,875,206 shares of Klein common stock outstanding and 2,822,000 of those shares were entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each share of Klein voting common stock is entitled to one vote.

The holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Klein common stock entitled to vote as of the record date must be present in person or by proxy at the special meeting to constitute a quorum. In determining whether a quorum is present, shareholders who abstain will be treated as present for determining the presence or absence of a quorum.

Approval of the Merger Agreement will require the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the shares of Klein common stock entitled to vote. Abstentions from voting will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement. As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of Klein (and their affiliates), as a group, beneficially owned 2,822,000 shares of Klein voting common stock, or approximately 100% of the outstanding shares of Klein voting common stock. In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Daniel Klein, Alan Klein and James Klein executed voting agreements pursuant to which they agreed to vote their shares and shares held by trusts (subject to their fiduciary duties and the applicable trust agreement), under which they are individually beneficial owners in favor of the Merger Agreement. As of the record date, these shareholders beneficially owned 1,642,500 shares of Klein voting common stock, or approximately 58.2% of the outstanding shares of Klein voting common stock. Accordingly, Klein expects that the Merger Agreement will be approved at the special meeting.

The vote on the Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Klein common stock present in person or by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against this proposal.

Voting and Revocability of Proxies

You may vote in one of two ways: (1) by mail (by completing and signing the proxy that accompanies this proxy statement and prospectus); or (2) in person (by either delivering the completed proxy or by casting a ballot if attending the special meeting). Voting instructions are included on your proxy. If you properly complete and timely submit your proxy, your shares will be voted as you have directed. If you submit your proxy without specifying a voting instruction, your shares will be voted "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement and "FOR" approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

Table of Contents

You may revoke your proxy before it is voted by:

- filing with the Secretary of Klein a duly executed revocation of proxy;
- submitting a new proxy with a later date; or
- voting in person at the special meeting.

Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute a revocation of a proxy. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, directors, officers, and employees of Klein may solicit proxies personally and by telephone. None of these persons will receive additional or special compensation for soliciting proxies. Old National will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and other nominees for their expenses in sending proxy materials to their customers who are beneficial owners and obtaining their voting instructions.

PROPOSAL 1 — THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

The Klein board of directors regularly reviews and discusses Klein's business strategy, performance, prospects and operations in the context of the economic environment in Minnesota and the United States, developments in the regulation of financial institutions and the competitive landscape for community banking. This strategic review process has been guided in large part by the interests of the Klein family, which collectively controls 100% of the voting and non-voting stock of Klein, directly and through various trusts established for the benefit of Klein family members. All of the adult members of the Klein family who are shareholders or trustees of shareholders serve as members of the Klein board of directors and all of the individual and trust shareholders are represented on the board.

In 1907, C.H. Klein purchased the controlling interest in First National Bank of Chaska. Over the next 68 years, the banks controlled by the Klein family grew to include an additional six charters. In 1975, Klein was established to consolidate ownership of the banks under a single bank holding company. Over the next 30 years, Klein continued to expand through the acquisition of additional banks and a mortgage company, as well as the opening of additional bank branches. In 2005, the separate bank charters were merged into a single bank under the KleinBank name. Since 2005, KleinBank continued to expand through the acquisition of three additional banks and two bank branch openings. In January 2018, Klein chose to right size its banking operations and entered into an agreement to sell three non-core branches.

The Klein family has controlled Klein since its formation, and to this day remains active in overseeing its management and operations. Over the years, C.H. Klein's descendants held positions in management and the board of directors. Daniel Klein assumed the role of Chairman of Klein in 1979 and was President of Klein from 1979 until 2017; he has also been Chairman of KleinBank since 2005 and was President and Chief Executive Officer of KleinBank from 2005 to 2009. James Klein has served as Vice Chairman and Executive Vice President of Klein since 1989, Vice Chairman of KleinBank since 2005 and Executive Vice President of KleinBank from 2005 until 2012. Alan Klein has served as Vice Chairman and Executive Vice President of Klein since 1979, Vice Chairman of KleinBank since 2005 and Executive Vice President of KleinBank from 2005 until 2013. In addition, Matthew, Christian and Jeffrey Klein have served and continue to serve in various capacities at KleinBank.

In recent years, the Klein family increased its focus on succession planning. In 2009, W. Douglas Hile became the first non-family member to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of KleinBank. In 2017, Mr. Hile was appointed President of Klein, while Daniel Klein remained Chief Executive Officer of Klein. In 2018, Matthew Klein became President of KleinBank, while Mr. Hile continued to serve as the Chief Executive Officer of KleinBank. The Klein family also turned its attention to the capital condition of Klein, including the capital that would be required to grow the organization organically, pursue additional acquisitions and continue the payment of cash dividends, as well as the liquidity of their investment in Klein.

At the invitation of Klein management, in October 2017 Sandler O'Neill made presentations to Klein's shareholders on the current operating environment for community banks, the Klein franchise, and its strategic options and opportunities. Specifically, the Sandler O'Neill presentations addressed:

- The current state of the community bank operating environment, capital markets and M&A market;
- Klein's franchise and market position;
- A projected earnings model and stand-alone valuation analysis;
- An analysis of Klein as an acquirer;
- The availability and utilization of subordinate debt to fund acquisitions;

Table of Contents

- The potential benefits and challenges of a possible initial public offering of Klein common stock and illustrative initial public offering valuation; and
- An analysis of Klein as a merger partner and illustrative sale valuation.

Also in October 2017 Klein Senior Vice President Nanci Olson presented an overview to Klein's shareholders on the tax ramifications of the strategic options presented by Sandler O'Neill, taking into account the circumstances of both individual and trust shareholders. Following the October presentations by Sandler O'Neill and Ms. Olson, further discussions of the available strategic options took place among Klein shareholders with additional input from Klein management.

At the 2018 annual shareholder meeting held on January 22, 2018, the future of Klein was considered by the shareholders and a motion was approved by 66.5% of the shares of Klein voting common stock to explore the sale of the company.

A meeting of the Klein board of directors was then held on January 23, 2018. At this meeting, the Klein board of directors unanimously approved amended and restated bylaws for Klein. As amended, the by-laws provided for the formation of an executive committee of the board comprised of the chairman and two vice chairmen of the board (the "Executive Committee"). The amended by-laws empowered the Executive Committee to exercise the powers of the board of directors when it is not in session, reporting back to the board on its activities and matters of interest. The Klein board of directors then unanimously approved the proposed officers of Klein, including Daniel Klein as Chairman and James Klein and Alan Klein each as Vice Chairmen, and all three as the members of the Executive Committee. Finally, the Klein board of directors considered the implementation of the motion approved by the shareholders to explore a sale of the company and instructed the Executive Committee to address the process for exploring a sale and provide direction to management on the implementation of the shareholders' motion.

A meeting of the Executive Committee was also held on January 23, 2018. At this meeting, Klein President Doug Hile was asked to present an overview of a process for exploring a sale of the company. Based on Mr. Hile's presentation, the Executive Committee discussed the following key points: identifying and articulating the reasons for a sale, engaging qualified investment banking and legal advisors, establishing a suitable marketing approach for identifying prospective partners, and establishing criteria for evaluating competing proposals based primarily on total consideration but also taking into account employee, customer, culture and community considerations. Mr. Hile recommended that a management task force be formed to lead the sale process. The Executive Committee also discussed the impact of a proposed sale on change in control, severance and other transaction related incentives and agreements currently in place as well as those that should be considered in order to protect the Klein organization throughout the sale process. The Committee discussed the issuance of transaction bonuses to recognize members of the executive management team who are not shareholders, and therefore, will not directly participate in the value realized from a sale; changes to the employee severance plan and the establishment of a retention bonus pool to retain employees through and after the sale; and amendments to the change in control agreements. Mr. Hile also recommended that Matthew Klein be appointed as President of KleinBank, allowing Mr. Hile to shift his focus to the sale process. Finally, the committee discussed the pending Department of Justice litigation and the value of settling the litigation in advance of a sale of the company. Mr. Hile was then instructed to proceed with the implementation of the sales process.

The Executive Committee met on February 6, 2018 at which time Mr. Hile updated the committee on the engagement of advisors. Mr. Hile reported the engagement of Dorsey & Whitney LLP ("D&W") as legal counsel. Mr. Hile also reported on a meeting with Sandler O'Neill, the evaluation of other investment banking firms and plans to meet with another investment banking firm before making a recommendation. Mr. Hile also reported that a management task force had been formed to lead the sale process.

Table of Contents

At a meeting held on February 26, 2018, the Executive Committee approved the recommendation of management to engage Sandler O'Neill as the investment banker advising the company. Management then updated the committee on plans to work with Sandler O'Neill to develop marketing materials, identify potential partners and recommend how to approach potential partners for initial indications of interest. Doug Hile also updated the committee on pricing considerations and the potential price range for a transaction. D&W presented and discussed in detail with the Executive Committee the fiduciary and legal obligations applicable to directors when considering a sale or merger of Klein.

Over the next two weeks, representatives of Sandler O'Neill worked with Klein management to identify parties that might be interested in a partnership with Klein and develop a confidential information memorandum for distribution to merger candidates. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill presented to management a list of ten potential merger candidates as the most likely to be interested and most capable of offering to Klein an attractive proposal. These candidates were in turn divided into five "A" list candidates with the greatest potential for offering an attractive proposal, including Old National, and five "B" list candidates. At a meeting held on March 12, 2018, the "A" and "B" list candidates were presented to the Executive Committee. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill presented their assessment of each candidate, and committee members' questions were answered regarding the proposed candidates as well as other potential candidates. Sandler O'Neill then recommended that all "A" list candidates be given the opportunity to enter into confidentiality agreements and the opportunity to participate in the sale process. Sandler O'Neill further recommended that a soft calling process be used to determine the level of interest of each of the "B" list candidates before giving those candidates the opportunity to participate in the process. After further discussion by the Executive Committee, the "A" and "B" list candidates were approved along with the recommended soft calling process for determining which "B" list candidates would be provided an opportunity to participate in the sales process. At this meeting the Executive Committee also reviewed management proposals regarding the employee severance plan, retention bonus pool, management change in control agreements and transaction bonuses to be offered to certain employees upon consummation of a transaction. After further discussion by the committee, these proposals were approved.

Four of the five "A" list candidates and three of the five "B" list candidates entered into confidentiality agreements during March 2018. One of these potential merger partners declined to explore a potential transaction based on their limited interest in the Minneapolis/St. Paul metropolitan area. Each of the remaining six candidates had access to a virtual data room with certain limited due diligence information about Klein and held preliminary due diligence meetings and/or conference calls with Klein management. Based on input from Klein management, representatives of Sandler O'Neill distributed to the remaining six candidates a bid request letter with detailed instructions for submitting a non-binding indication of interest to enter into a transaction with Klein. Klein received indications of interest from four of the six remaining candidates, all of which were "A" list candidates. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill prepared and distributed to the Executive Committee in advance of its May 1, 2018 meeting a detailed summary of the indications of interest received.

On May 1, 2018, the Executive Committee met to review the indications of interest and to continue its consideration of Klein's strategic options. At the meeting, representatives of Sandler O'Neill gave a presentation to the committee, which included a review of the discussions held between Klein management and each candidate, a summary of the bid proposals received, an analysis of Klein's prospects as a stand-alone enterprise and profiles of the candidates. The presentation included an assessment of the willingness and capacity to pay, estimated transaction values and a comparison of the cash/stock consideration mix of each bid. The committee engaged in a comprehensive discussion of the four candidates and the perceived relative advantages and disadvantages of each one. The committee noted that the financial value of the four bids was very similar. The committee discussed the possible paths available to take going forward and decided to invite all four remaining candidates to complete due diligence and submit final non-binding indications of interest.

The next phase of due diligence included access to an expanded virtual data room, including additional due diligence materials and responses to requests for supplemental information, and loan due diligence through online access to credit files. Candidates were also provided a form merger agreement with comments to be provided as part of their final indication of interest. As an initial action in the reverse due diligence process, members of Klein management also visited with the management teams of each candidate at their respective office locations in order to give management an understanding of the cultural fit of each candidate and integration related topics.

Three of the four remaining candidates submitted final indications of interest and the fourth chose to withdraw from the process. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill prepared and distributed to the Executive Committee in advance of its meeting a detailed summary of the indications of interest received. A matrix reflecting the material comments received to the form merger agreement from each candidate was also prepared and distributed to the committee.

On May 30, 2018, the Executive Committee met to review the final indications of interest and to continue its consideration of Klein's strategic options. At the meeting, representatives of Sandler O'Neill gave a presentation to the committee, which included a review of the discussions held between Klein management and the remaining candidates, a summary of the bid proposals received, an analysis of Klein's prospects as a stand-alone enterprise and profiles of the possible candidates. The presentation included an assessment of the willingness and capacity to pay, estimated transaction values and a comparison of the cash/stock consideration mix of each bid. Although each indication of interest proposed a different mix of stock and cash consideration, the Old National proposal offered the highest aggregate consideration. In addition to the presentation by Sandler O'Neill, representatives of a fiduciary wealth management advisor to certain of the Klein individual and trust shareholders provided their assessment of the proposed stock consideration offered by each candidate, favoring the stock of Old National from the investment perspective of the individual and trust shareholders of Klein. Klein management reported that it believed Old National maintained a culture that was very comparable to that of Klein. Management also commented on the in-market synergies between Klein and Anchor Bank, which was acquired by Old National last year. Management also noted that the Old National proposal included a more generous severance plan and retention bonus pool than originally proposed by Klein management. The Executive Committee discussed the advantages of pursuing a transaction with Old National as a partner, including the attractive dividend payable on its stock, its superior liquidity in its public trading market and the belief that its culture would fit well with Klein. Although legal counsel prepared and distributed to the committee a matrix reflecting the material comments received to the form merger agreement from each candidate, the principal agreement comment of note was that Old National provided the most complete markup of the form merger agreement, leaving less to be negotiated in order to finalize the definitive merger agreement. Sandler O'Neill recommended that, if the Executive Committee preferred Old National as a transaction partner, then Klein seek to negotiate the following changes to Old National's final indication of interest: (1) setting the exchange ratio based on the volume weighted average price prior to signing but no less than 8.033 shares of Old National common stock for each share of Klein common stock; (2) a single-trigger walkaway right that Klein could use to terminate the agreement if the average common stock closing price of Old National's stock is below the 10-day volume weighted average price prior to signing, minus 15%; (3) a reverse termination fee in the event Old National failed to obtain regulatory approval in an amount between $1.5 million and $3.0 million, and (4) establishing the minimum net worth requirement as part of the final indication of interest, rather than during the negotiation of the definitive agreement. After further discussion, the Executive Committee concluded that Old National was the most desirable transaction partner and the committee authorized management, in consultation with Sandler O'Neill and D&W and subject to approval of the full board of directors, to seek to negotiate the recommended changes to the indication of interest with Old National and to negotiate exclusively with Old National to complete the negotiation of a definitive merger agreement based on the comments Old National previously provided to Klein's form merger agreement.

On May 31, 2018, Sandler O'Neill reported that Old National agreed to the requested changes to their indication of interest, with the exception to the changes to the exchange ratio, which would remain fixed as initially proposed. Old National's indication of interest, as revised, included an aggregate purchase price of $419.2 million consisting of 100% Old National stock (based on an Old National stock price as of May 25, 2018), which valued Klein at $145.80 per share of common stock. The exchange ratio for the stock consideration was fixed at 8.033 shares of Old National common stock for each share of Klein common stock. The revised proposal also included a single-trigger walkaway right and reverse termination fee. Upon consultation with Sandler O’Neill, and after informal consultation with members of the Executive Committee, Klein management concluded that this proposal was acceptable and to proceed with the negotiation of a definitive agreement for presentation to the Executive Committee and then the full board of directors for final approval. At management’s request, representatives of Sandler O’Neill informed Old National that Klein had determined to proceed with it to negotiate a definitive merger agreement and informed the other bidders that it had determined not to discuss anything further at that time.

From June 1, 2018 to June 15, 2018, Old National completed its due diligence on Klein, including a review of additional materials uploaded to a virtual data room and interviews of Klein management. During this period, Klein also presented Old National with a “reverse” due diligence list requesting information about Old National and its financial condition and operations. Old National populated a virtual data room with the requested documents. Klein and its advisors reviewed the documentation and held reverse due diligence meetings with Old National management. In addition, Klein and its advisors reviewed information about Old National that was publicly available, including reports and other materials filed with the SEC.

On June 16, 2018, Old National communicated to Klein a slightly revised proposal based on the results of its final due diligence review of Klein. The revised proposal changed the exchange ratio for the stock consideration from 8.033 shares of Old National common stock per share of Klein common stock to 7.86, based on the impact of additional tax dividends for the 2017 tax year paid in 2018 and a recalculation of certain amounts payable to employees upon consummation of the proposed transaction. Old National also raised issues regarding the calculation and payment of tax dividends for the remainder of the 2018 tax year. Between June 16 and June 18, 2018 the parties negotiated the resolution of these issues, ultimately agreeing on a mechanism to insure appropriate tax distributions for the 2018 tax year and a fixed exchange ratio of 7.92 shares of Old National common stock per share of Klein common stock.

From June 1, 2018 to June 20, 2018, Klein and Old National and their respective representatives and advisors also negotiated the terms of the merger agreement based on the form merger agreement previously provided by Klein and comments received from Old National with its final indication of interest. The parties and their legal advisors exchanged a number of drafts of the agreement and its exhibits, and worked toward finalizing the terms of the transaction. Also during this period, each party prepared, distributed and finalized a set of disclosure schedules listing certain supplemental information and exceptions to the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement.

On June 20, 2018, Klein management distributed to Executive Committee and Klein board of directors a substantially final, negotiated version of the merger agreement and the Executive Committee met to review the substantially final version of the agreement.

Also on June 20, 2018 and immediately following the Executive Committee meeting, the full Klein board of directors held a special meeting to review and consider approving the Merger Agreement. All directors were present and participated in the meeting. At the meeting, the Klein board received a full report from Klein management and the members of the Executive Committee on the strategic process to date, including the identification of potential merger partners, the bidding process, management’s meetings with the three final candidates identified by the process and the decision to select one of the candidates, Old National, with which to negotiate a transaction, complete due diligence reviews and the negotiate a definitive merger agreement.

Representatives of Sandler O’Neill gave the board a presentation on the following topics:

- The current state of the community banking industry and the M&A market;
- The bidding process, including the approach taken in identifying likely transaction partners;

Table of Contents

- An analysis of the value of Klein as a stand-alone entity, based on information provided by Klein;
- Financial analysis and summary of key terms of Old National's proposal;
- A comparison of the proposal to values received in comparable transactions; and
- A company profile and business and financial information about Old National.

At the meeting, D&W provided a comprehensive review of the Merger Agreement. Various provisions of the Merger Agreement were discussed and director questions regarding the Merger Agreement were answered. D&W also reviewed the terms of the related shareholder voting agreements and standstill agreements to be executed by certain shareholders.

D&W also reviewed with the Klein board the fiduciary and legal obligations applicable to directors when considering a sale or merger of Klein, including the consideration of any superior proposals that might be received, the board and shareholder approvals required in order to approve and consummate the merger, and the fiduciary obligations of the trustees of the trust shareholders of Klein that would be asked to vote on the transaction.

Sandler O'Neill delivered its oral fairness opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of June 20, 2018, and based on certain assumptions, limitations and qualifications, the Merger Consideration was fair to the common shareholders of Klein from a financial point of view.

The Klein board engaged in a discussion of the Merger Agreement, the financial analyses and the fairness opinion. The Klein board considered the analyses of Sandler O'Neill regarding the valuation of Klein as a stand-alone entity and discussed the attributes of Old National's common stock, including its recent market performance, its dividend payout ratio, its trading volume and its relative valuation compared to its peers. The Klein board also discussed Old National's commitment to community banking and its business culture and philosophy. Following the board's discussion and questions and answers, including consideration of the factors described under "Klein's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Board of Directors," the Klein board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, were in the best interests of Klein and its shareholders and authorized Klein's management to execute and deliver the Merger Agreement.

Following the Klein board meeting, on June 20, 2018, Klein and Old National executed and delivered the Merger Agreement and a respective set of disclosure schedules. On that same date, certain of the shareholders of Klein executed and delivered to Old National voting agreements and lock-up agreements, as required by the Merger Agreement. On June 21, 2018, before the U.S. financial markets opened, Klein and Old National issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the Merger Agreement and the terms of the Merger. Throughout the process, the Klein family, through its representation in management and on Klein's board of directors, provided feedback and support in favor of the proposed transaction with Old National.

Klein's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Board of Directors

After careful consideration, at a meeting held on June 20, 2018, the Klein board of directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement, including the Merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby, is in the best interests of Klein and its shareholders and approved the Merger Agreement.

In reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and recommend that its shareholders vote "FOR" the Merger Agreement, the Executive Committee and the Klein board of directors consulted with Klein management, as well as its independent financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

- the direction from Klein shareholders to explore a sale of the company as evidenced by the resolution passed by the shareholders at their January 22, 2018 meeting;

- the report and recommendation of the Executive Committee;
- the shareholders', board's and Executive Committee's review of the risks and prospects of remaining independent, including the challenges of the current financial, operating and regulatory climate, the increasing costs associated with banking regulation and Klein's need to raise capital to continue to grow or acquire;
- the desirable attributes of Old National as a transaction partner, as compared to other prospective merger candidates;
- the purchase price to be paid by Old National, which based on the price per share of Old National's common stock as of June 19, 2018, of $18.75, was equal to 232.0% of Klein's tangible book value and 21.1x of Klein's earnings for the 12-month period ending on March 31, 2018;
- the financial analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its written opinion, dated as of June 20, 2018, delivered to the Klein board of directors to the effect that, as of that date, and subject to and based on the various assumptions, considerations, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the Merger Consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to Klein's shareholders;
- Old National's current annual cash dividend of $0.52 per share, which is equivalent to $4.12 per share on the Klein shares of common stock exchanged for Old National shares of common stock, compared to Klein's current annual dividend of $2.02 per share on an after tax basis;
- the support of the Klein family of the decision to enter into the Merger Agreement, which was demonstrated by the unanimous approval of the board which is comprised of all adult members of the Klein family;
- the shared values, common cultures and commitments of Klein and Old National to serving their clients and communities;
- its knowledge of Klein's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings, loan portfolio, capital and prospects both as an independent organization, and as a part of a combined company with Old National;
- its understanding of Old National's business, operations, regulatory and financial condition, asset quality, earnings, capital and prospects taking into account the due diligence review of Old National by Klein management and information furnished by Sandler O'Neill;
- the belief the Executive Committee and board that the Merger, taking into account Old National's 2017 acquisition of Anchor Bancorp, will result in a stronger commercial banking franchise with a diversified revenue stream, strong capital ratios, a well-balanced loan portfolio and an attractive funding base that has the potential to deliver a higher value to Klein's shareholders as compared to continuing to operate as a stand-alone entity;
- the expanded possibilities, including organic growth and future acquisitions, that would be available to the combined company, given its larger size, asset base, capital, market capitalization and footprint;
- the anticipated pro forma impact of the Merger on Old National, including potential synergies with Old National and the recently acquired Anchor Bancorp, and the expected impact on financial metrics such as earnings and tangible common equity per share, as well as on regulatory capital levels;
- the stock Merger Consideration, which offers Klein shareholders the opportunity to participate as shareholders of Old National in the future performance of the combined company;
- the historical performance of each of Klein's common stock and Old National's common stock;
- the fact that upon completion of the Merger, Klein shareholders will own approximately 13.0% of the outstanding shares of the combined company (based on the price per share of Old National's common stock as of June 19, 2018, of $18.75);

Table of Contents

- the active trading market in Old National common stock that would give Klein shareholders greater liquidity for their investment if they desire to sell their shares of Old National received upon completion of the Merger;
- the benefits to Klein and its customers of operating as a larger organization, including enhancements in products and services, higher lending limits and greater financial resources;
- the expected social and economic impact of the Merger on the constituencies served by Klein, including its borrowers, customers, depositors, employees and communities;
- the effects of the Merger on Klein employees, including the prospects for continued employment in a larger organization and various benefits agreed to be provided to Klein employees;
- the Executive Committee and board's understanding of the current and prospective environment in which Klein and Old National operate, including national and local economic conditions, the interest rate environment, increasing operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates and the competitive effects of the continuing consolidation in the banking industry;
- the ability of Old National to complete the Merger from a financial and regulatory perspective, as demonstrated by Old National's ability to successfully complete numerous previous merger transactions;
- the board's understanding that the Merger will qualify as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a)(1) of the Code, providing favorable tax consequences to Klein's shareholders in the Merger; and
- the Executive Committee and board's review with its independent legal advisor, D&W, of the material terms of the Merger Agreement, including the board's ability, under certain circumstances, to change its recommendation to Klein's shareholders and to consider and pursue a better unsolicited acquisition proposal, subject to the potential payment by Klein of a termination fee to Old National, which the board of directors concluded was reasonable in the context of termination fees in comparable transactions and in light of the overall terms of the Merger Agreement, as well as the nature of the covenants, representations and warranties and termination provisions in the Merger Agreement.

The Executive Committee and Klein board of directors also considered a number of potential risks and uncertainties associated with the Merger in connection with its deliberation of the proposed transaction, including, without limitation, the following:

- the risk that the consideration to be paid to Klein shareholders could be adversely affected by a decrease in the trading price of Old National common stock during the pendency of the Merger;
- the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Klein's business and towards the completion of the Merger;
- the restrictions on the conduct of Klein's business prior to the completion of the Merger, which are customary for merger agreements involving financial institutions, but which, subject to specific exceptions, could delay or prevent Klein from undertaking business opportunities that may arise or any other action it would otherwise take with respect to the operations of Klein absent the pending Merger;
- the potential risks associated with achieving anticipated cost synergies and savings and successfully integrating Klein's business, operations and workforce with those of Old National;
- the fact that the interests of certain of Klein's directors and executive officers may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Klein's other shareholders as described under the heading "Interests of Certain Directors and Executive Officers of Klein in the Merger";
- that there can be no assurances that all conditions to the parties' obligations to complete the Merger Agreement will be satisfied, including the risk that necessary regulatory approvals or the Klein shareholder approval might not be obtained and, as a result, the Merger may not be completed;

Table of Contents

- the risk of potential employee attrition or adverse effects on business and customer relationships as a result of the pending Merger; and
- the fact that Klein would be obligated to pay to Old National a termination fee if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which may discourage other parties potentially interested in a strategic transaction with Klein from pursuing such a transaction.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Executive Committee and the Klein board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Klein board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the Klein board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Executive Committee and Klein board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of Klein's management and Klein's independent financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

The board of directors of Klein unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein. Klein shareholders should be aware that certain Klein executive officers have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of other Klein shareholders. The Klein Executive Committee and board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that the Merger proposal be approved by the shareholders of Klein. See "Interests of Certain Directors and Executive Officers of Klein in the Merger."

Old National's Reasons For the Merger

Old National's board of directors concluded that the Merger Agreement is in the best interests of Old National and its shareholders. In deciding to approve the Merger Agreement, Old National's board of directors considered a number of factors, including, without limitation, the following:

- KleinBank's presence in the demographically attractive and economically vibrant Twin Cities and its western communities which Old National believes strengthens and complements its entry in this market in 2017 and offers it even more robust commercial and industrial lending and retail client growth and opportunities to cross sell many of Old National's existing products and services;
- Klein represents one of few remaining significant community bank expansion opportunities into Minnesota's most attractive banking market;
- The combination with Klein positions Old National to hold the fifth largest deposit market share in the Minneapolis metropolitan statistical area and in the state of Minnesota;
- Klein's business philosophies and operating cultures are compatible with Old National's; and
- Old National's management's review of the business, operating efficiencies and cost savings, earnings, and financial condition, including capital levels and asset quality, of Klein and KleinBank.

Effects of the Merger

The respective boards of directors of Old National and Klein believe that, over the long-term, the Merger will be beneficial to Old National shareholders, including the current shareholders of Klein who will become Old National shareholders if the Merger is completed. The Old National board of directors believes that one of the potential benefits of the Merger is the cost savings that may be realized by combining the two companies and integrating KleinBank into Old National Bank, which savings are expected to enhance Old National's earnings.

Old National expects to reduce expenses by combining accounting, data processing, retail and lending support, and other administrative functions after completion of the Merger, which will enable Old National to achieve economies of scale in these areas. Promptly following the completion of the Merger, which is expected to occur in the fourth quarter of 2018, Old National plans to begin the process of eliminating redundant functions and eliminating duplicative expenses.

The amount of any cost savings Old National may realize in 2018 and beyond will depend upon how quickly and efficiently Old National is able to implement the processes outlined above.

Old National has based these assumptions on its present assessment of where savings could be realized based upon the present independent operations of the two companies. Actual savings in some or all of these areas could be higher or lower than is currently expected.

Old National also believes that the Merger will be beneficial to the customers of Klein as a result of the additional products and services offered by Old National and its subsidiaries and because of the increased lending capability.

Opinion of Financial Advisor to Klein

By letter dated February 23, 2018, the Klein board of directors engaged Sandler O'Neill to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to the Klein board of directors in connection with the Merger with Old National and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the Merger Agreement. At the June 20, 2018 meeting of the Klein board of directors, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the Klein board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of such date, the Exchange Ratio was fair to the holders of Klein common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion (the "Opinion") is attached hereto as Annex B. The Opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its Opinion. The description of Sander O'Neill's Opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Opinion. Klein's shareholders are urged to read the entire Opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the Merger.

Sandler O'Neill's Opinion speaks only as of the date of the Opinion. The Opinion was directed to Klein's board of directors and is directed only to the fairness of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of Klein common stock from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of Klein to engage in the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Klein, the effect of any other transaction in which Klein might engage or any other aspect of the Merger, and is not a recommendation to any Klein shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special shareholder meeting with respect to the Merger or any other matter. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by Klein's officers, directors, or employees, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the Merger Consideration to be received by Klein's common shareholders. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by its fairness opinion committee.

In connection with rendering its Opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

- a draft of the Merger Agreement, dated June 20, 2018;
- certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Klein that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;
- certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Old National that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

- a comparison of certain financial information for Klein and Old National with similar financial institutions for which information is publicly available;
- the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry (on a regional and nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available;
- the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and
- such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of the management of Klein and its representatives the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Klein and held similar discussions with certain members of the management of Old National and its representatives regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Old National.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by Sandler O'Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O'Neill by Klein or Old National or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O'Neill, and Sandler O'Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its Opinion without any independent verification or investigation. Sandler O'Neill relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Klein and Old National that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler O'Neill did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Klein or Old National or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor was Sandler O'Neill furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O'Neill rendered no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Klein or Old National. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Klein or Old National, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and Sandler O'Neill did not review any individual credit files relating to Klein or Old National. Sandler O'Neill assumed, with Klein's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Klein and Old National were adequate to cover such losses and would be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used certain internal financial projections for Klein for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of Klein. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Old National for the years ending December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, as well as a long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter and dividends per share for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of Old National. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as well as estimated annual regulatory costs following the closing of the Merger, as provided by the senior management of Old National. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of Klein and Old National confirmed to Sandler O'Neill that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective managements as to the future financial performance of Klein and Old National, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and Sandler O'Neill assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information was based. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there had been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Klein or Old National since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analyses that Klein and Old National would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Klein's consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Merger Agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms of the Merger Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not and would not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Klein, Old National or the Merger or any related transactions, and (iii) the Merger and any related transactions would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements. Finally, with Klein's consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice that Klein received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to any such matters.

Sandler O'Neill's Opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date of the Opinion. Events occurring after the date of Sandler O'Neill's Opinion could materially affect the Opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its Opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of its Opinion. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading value of Old National common stock at any time or what the value of Old National common stock would be once it is actually received by the holders of Klein common stock.

In rendering its Opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's Opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to Klein's board of directors, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its Opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Klein or Old National and no transaction is identical to the Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Klein and Old National and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its Opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O'Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its Opinion, rather, Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the Exchange Ratio on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Klein, Old National and Sandler O'Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its Opinion and provided such analyses to Klein's board of directors at its June 20, 2018 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Klein common stock or the prices at which Klein common stock or Old National common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its Opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Klein's board of directors in making its determination to approve the Merger Agreement and should not be viewed as determinative of the Exchange Ratio or the decision of Klein's board of directors or management with respect to the fairness of the Merger. The type and amount of Merger Consideration payable in the Merger were determined through negotiation between Klein and Old National.

Summary of Merger Consideration and Implied Transaction Metrics. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the Merger. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, upon the Effective Time of the Merger, holders of Klein common stock are entitled to receive, in exchange for each share of Klein common stock, subject to adjustments set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Consideration equal to 7.92 shares of Old National common stock, equating to an implied deal price per share of $148.50 based on Old National's closing price on June 19, 2018, or $18.75. Sandler O'Neill calculated an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $427.0 million, based upon 2,875,206 Klein common shares outstanding.

Based upon financial information for Klein as of or for the twelve-month period ended March 31, 2018, Sandler O'Neill calculated the following implied transaction metrics:

Net Present Value Analysis. Sandler O’Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Klein’s common stock assuming Klein performed in accordance with internal projections for Klein for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of Klein. To approximate the terminal value of a share of Klein common stock at December 31, 2022, Sandler O’Neill applied price to earnings multiples of 12.5x to 20.0x and multiples of tangible book value ranging from 145% to 220%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 15.0%, which were selected to reflect different assumptions regarding potential desired rates of return of holders of Klein common stock.

As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of Klein common stock of $95 to $179 when applying multiples of earnings per share and $83 to $148 when applying multiples of tangible book value per share.

In connection with its analyses, Sandler O’Neill considered and discussed with the Klein board of directors how the net present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions. Sandler O’Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

- (1) Core deposits defined as total deposits less time deposits greater than $100,000. Note: Transaction multiples assume holders of Klein common stock are entitled to receive, in exchange for each share of Klein common stock, subject to certain adjustments set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Consideration equal to 7.92 shares of Old National common stock equating to an implied deal price per share of $148.50 based on Old National's closing price on June 19, 2018, or $18.75.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the Merger, based on the following information and assumptions: (i) the Merger closes in the third calendar quarter of 2018; (ii) 100.0% of outstanding Klein common shares are converted into the right to receive Old National common stock utilizing a fixed Exchange Ratio of 7.92 multiplied by Old National's volume-weighted average closing price for the fifteen trading days ending at or near the time of closing.

Sandler O'Neill also incorporated the following assumptions, as provided by the senior management of Old National (unless otherwise noted): (a) certain internal financial projections for Klein for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by senior management of Klein; (b) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Old National for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2019, as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter and estimated cash dividends per share of Old National common stock for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of Old National; (c) estimated transaction expenses; (d) purchase accounting adjustments; (e) estimated cost savings; and (f) the anticipated regulatory and compliance costs. The analysis indicated that the Merger (excluding transaction expenses) could be accretive to Old National's earnings per share in 2018 and could be dilutive to Old National's tangible book value per share at the closing of the Merger.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Sandler O'Neill is acting as financial advisor to the board of directors of Klein in connection with the Merger. Klein has agreed to pay Sandler O'Neill a transaction fee in connection with the Merger in an amount equal to (i) 0.95% of the aggregate purchase price, plus (ii) 1.30% of the amount by which the aggregate purchase price exceeds $375.0 million. At the time of announcement, based on Old National's closing price of $18.75 as of June 19, 2018, the calculated transaction fee was approximately $4.7 million of which $100,000 was paid to Sandler O'Neill upon signing of the Merger Agreement. Sandler O'Neill also received a $350,000 fee upon rendering its Opinion to the Klein board of directors, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the remaining transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. Klein has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O'Neill against certain claims and liabilities arising out of its engagement and to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement. Sandler O'Neill did not provide any other investment banking services to Klein in the two years preceding the date of its Opinion, nor did Sandler O'Neill provide any investment banking services to Old National in the two years preceding the date of the Opinion. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Old National and its affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities Old National or its affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Structure of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the completion of the Merger, Klein will merge with and into Old National, with Old National as the surviving corporation. The separate existence of Klein will terminate as a consequence of the Merger. Old National common stock will continue to be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol “ONB”. Simultaneous with the Merger, KleinBank will be merged with and into Old National Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Old National.

Under the Merger Agreement, the officers and directors of Old National serving at the effective time of the Merger will continue to serve as the officers and directors of Old National after the Merger is consummated.

Merger Consideration

If the Merger is completed, your shares of Klein common stock will be converted into the right to receive 7.92 shares of Old National common stock, subject to adjustment as summarized below. If the Klein Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity as of the last calendar day of the month immediately preceding the month in which the closing date occurs (the “Determination Date”) is less than Minimum Shareholders’ Equity, the Exchange Ratio shall be decreased to a quotient determined by dividing the Adjusted Stock Purchase Price (as defined below) by the total number of shares of Klein common stock outstanding at the effective time on the first calendar day of the month following the closing date (the “Effective Date”) of the Merger, and further dividing that number by the Old National Closing Date Stock Price. Minimum Shareholders’ Equity shall mean (1) $231,358,000 if the closing date occurs on a date for which the Determination Date would be August 31, 2018, (2) $233,429,000 if the closing date occurs on a date for which the Determination Date would be September 30, 2018, (3) $237,866,000 if the closing date occurs on a date for which the Determination Date would be November 30, 2018, and (4) $240,717,000 if the closing date occurs on a date for which the Determination Date would be December 31, 2018, or later. For purposes of the computation, Old National Closing Date Stock Price shall mean the volume weighted average price of a share of Old National common stock for the period ending on the day immediately preceding the closing date, and the Adjusted Stock Purchase Price shall be equal to (x) the Purchase Price less (y) the amount by which Klein Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity as of the Determination Date is less than Minimum Shareholders’ Equity. The Purchase Price shall be the Old National Closing Date Stock Price multiplied by the total number of shares of Old National common stock to be issued as though the Exchange Ratio was not adjusted.

The Klein Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity shall be the consolidated shareholders’ equity of Klein as of the Determination Date determined in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”), less the net accumulated other comprehensive income/(loss), and to which shall be added the following (which amounts shall also be calculated in accordance with GAAP):

- any accruals, reserves or charges resulting from expenses of the Merger and other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;
- any accruals, reserves or charges taken by Klein at the request of Old National pursuant to the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement; and
- any dividends or capital distributions paid by Klein to holders of Klein common stock paid after the date of the Merger Agreement and on or before the Determination Date in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement.

If the Merger closes on September 30, 2018, the earliest Closing Date under the Merger Agreement, as of August 23, 2018, no adjustment is anticipated to the Merger Consideration based upon the Klein Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity at August 31, 2018. The Exchange Ratio remains subject to change, however, based upon the Klein Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity (computed in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement) as of the Determination Date.

Table of Contents

Additionally, Klein may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Old National Market Value on the Calculation Date is less than $15.75. If Klein elects to exercise its termination right as described above, it must give prompt written notice thereof to Old National. During the five-business day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Old National shall have the option to increase the Exchange Ratio to equal the quotient determined by dividing the Initial Old National Market Value, or $18.53, by the Old National Market Value on the Calculation Date, and multiplying the quotient by the product of the Exchange Ratio and 0.85. If Old National delivers, within such five-business day period, written notice to Klein of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio, no termination shall be deemed to have occurred and the Merger Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

Exchange and Payment Procedures

At and after the effective time of the Merger, each share of Klein common stock will represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration and any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. Old National will reserve a sufficient number of shares of Old National common stock to be issued as part of the Merger Consideration. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time of the Merger, but in no event more than five business days thereafter, Old National will distribute a letter of transmittal to each holder of record of Klein common stock with a form providing detailed instructions and requesting usual and customary information (the "Letter of Transmittal") necessary to effect the issuance of shares of Old National common stock in exchange for shares of Klein common stock.

Old National will provide a written notice of ownership of uncertificated shares to each former Klein registered shareholder setting forth the number of shares of Old National common stock that each holder of Klein common stock has received in the Merger upon receipt by Old National of a properly completed and executed Letter of Transmittal. No interest will be paid on any Merger Consideration that any such holder shall be entitled to receive.

The stock transfer books of Klein will be closed immediately at the effective time of the Merger and after the effective time there will be no transfers on the stock transfer records of Klein of any shares of Klein common stock. Old National will be entitled to rely on Klein's stock transfer books to establish the identity of those persons entitled to receive the Merger Consideration.

Dividends and Distributions

Until Old National receives the Letter of Transmittal, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time of the Merger with respect to shares of Old National common stock into which shares of Klein common stock may have been converted will accrue but will not be paid. When Old National receives the Letter of Transmittal, Old National will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest.

Representations and Warranties

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of Klein, on the one hand, and Old National, on the other hand, to each other as to, among other things:

- the corporate organization and existence of each party;
- the authority of each party to enter into the Merger Agreement, perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement and make it valid and binding;

shareholders or has withdrawn, modified or changed its approval or recommendation of the Merger Agreement or approves or publicly recommends an acquisition proposal with a third party, or Klein has entered into or publicly announced an intention to enter into another acquisition proposal;

- if the Klein board of directors fails to publicly reaffirm its recommendation of the Merger Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement within five business days of a written request by Old National to provide such reaffirmation;
- if either party terminates the Merger Agreement because it is not approved by the requisite vote of the shareholders of Klein at the meeting called for such purpose or by Old National because a quorum could not be convened at Klein's shareholder meeting called to approve the Merger and, prior to the date that is 12 months after such termination, Klein or any Klein subsidiary enters into any acquisition agreement with a third party or an acquisition proposal is consummated;
- if either party terminates the Merger Agreement because the consummation of the Merger has not occurred by March 31, 2019 and (A) prior to the date of such termination an acquisition proposal was made by a third party and (B) prior to the date that is 12 months after such termination, Klein or any Klein subsidiary enters into any acquisition agreement or any acquisition proposal is consummated; or
- if Klein terminates the Merger Agreement because on the Calculation Date the Old National Market Value is less than $15.75.

Management and Operations After the Merger

Old National's officers and directors serving at the effective time of the Merger shall continue to serve as Old National's officers and directors until such time as their successors have been duly elected and qualified or until their earlier resignation, death, or removal from office. Old National's articles of incorporation and by-laws in existence as of the effective time of the Merger shall remain Old National's articles of incorporation and by-laws following the effective time, until such articles of incorporation and by-laws are further amended as provided by applicable law.

Environmental Inspections

Old National has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if the dollar amount of all remedial or other corrective actions and measures required by the applicable lease or applicable environmental laws and regulations to be taken with respect to Klein's owned or leased real property or any adjoining properties is estimated to exceed, in the aggregate, $3,000,000.

Effective Time of Merger

Unless otherwise mutually agreed to by the parties, the effective time of the Merger is expected to occur at 12:01 a.m. on the first calendar day of the month following the date in which the closing of the Merger occurs. The parties currently expect to complete the Merger in the fourth quarter of 2018. The closing date will occur on the last business day of the month following fulfillment of all conditions precedent to the Merger and the expiration of all waiting periods in connection with the bank regulatory applications filed for the approval of the Merger. However, if the closing date were to occur on the last business day of November, then it will be postponed until the last business day of December. The closing date will not occur prior to September 30, 2018.

Regulatory Approvals for the Merger

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Merger cannot be completed until Old National receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Minnesota Department of Commerce, the approval of the OCC and the approval or waiver of the Federal Reserve Board. Old National has filed an application with these regulators for approval. Old National cannot be certain when such approval will be obtained or if they will be obtained. The Minnesota Department of Commerce only requires a notification filing, which has been provided by Old National.

Voting Agreements

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Daniel Klein, Alan Klein and James Klein executed voting agreements pursuant to which they agreed to vote their shares and shares held by trusts (subject to their fiduciary duties and the applicable trust agreement), under which they are individually beneficial owners in favor of the Merger Agreement. As of the record date, these shareholders beneficially owned 1,642,500 shares of Klein voting common stock, or approximately 58.2% of the outstanding shares of Klein voting common stock. Accordingly, Klein expects that the Merger Agreement will be approved at the special meeting.

Lock-Up Agreements

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, Daniel Klein, Alan Klein and James Klein executed and certain other holders of Klein common stock will execute lock-up agreements prior to the closing, covering in the aggregate approximately 18,200,000 shares of Old National common stock, assuming no adjustments to the Merger Consideration, or approximately 80% of the Old National common stock issued in the Merger. Such shareholders agreed not to sell or enter into any transactions to dispose of their shares of Old National common stock received in the Merger, or publicly disclose an intention to effect any such transaction, for a period of 60 to 90 days after the effective time of the Merger, which may be waived by Old National's prior written consent. As to the certain other shareholders who will execute lock-up agreements prior to the closing, such restrictions will apply only to 60% of each of these shareholders' shares of Old National common stock received in the Merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

Old National will account for the Merger under the "acquisition method of accounting" in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Using the acquisition method of accounting, the assets (including identified intangible assets) and liabilities of Klein will be recorded by Old National at their respective fair values at the time of the completion of the Merger. The excess of Old National's purchase price over the net fair value of the tangible and identified intangible assets acquired less liabilities assumed, will be recorded as goodwill.

Nasdaq Global Select Market Listing

Old National common stock currently is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol "ONB." The shares to be issued to the Klein shareholders in the Merger will be eligible for trading on the Nasdaq Global Select Market.

Dissenters' Rights

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that, if available under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. The shareholders of Klein have dissenters' rights under Section 302A.471 of the MBCA.

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS OF KLEIN SHAREHOLDERS

Section 302A.471 of the MBCA entitles any Klein shareholder who does not vote in favor of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement to file a notice of intent to demand the "fair value" of his, her or its Klein shares. Any Klein shareholder contemplating an attempt to assert and exercise dissenters' rights in connection with the Merger should review carefully the provisions of Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA (copies of which are provided in Annex C), particularly the specific procedural steps required to perfect such rights. DISSENTERS' RIGHTS ARE LOST IF THE PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 302A.473 OF THE MBCA ARE NOT FULLY SATISFIED.

Set forth below (to be read in conjunction with the full text of Section 302A.473 of the MBCA appearing in Annex C) is a brief description of the procedures relating to the exercise of dissenters' rights applicable to the Merger. The following description does not purport to be a complete statement of the provisions of Section 302A.473 of the MBCA and is qualified in its entirety by reference thereto.

Under Section 302A.471, Subd. 3(b) of the MBCA, only persons who are either: (1) a Klein shareholder of record as of the record date or (2) a beneficial owner of Klein shares as of the record date are entitled to exercise dissenters' rights.

Under Section 302A.473, Subd. 3 of the MBCA, a Klein shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights, which we refer to as a dissenter, must file a written notice of intent to demand the "fair value" of the Klein shares owned by the dissenter, which we refer to as a fair value notice, with Klein (at Klein Financial, Inc., 1550 Audubon Road, Suite 200, Chaska, Minnesota 55318, Attn: Doug Hile) before the shareholder vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. Under Section 302A.471, Subd. 2 of the MBCA, beneficial owners of Klein shares who desire to exercise statutory dissenters' rights must obtain a signed, written consent of the holder of record of the shares held on behalf of such beneficial owner that memorializes the holder of record's assent to the beneficial owner's exercise of dissenters' rights, which we refer to as a record holder consent. The beneficial owner must submit the record holder consent to Klein in addition to his, her or its fair value notice, in each case prior to the shareholder vote on the Merger.

IN ADDITION, THE KLEIN SHAREHOLDER MUST NOT VOTE HIS, HER OR ITS SHARES IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSAL TO APPROVE THE MERGER AGREEMENT. A VOTE AGAINST THE MERGER DOES NOT IN ITSELF CONSTITUTE A FAIR VALUE NOTICE AND A FAILURE TO VOTE DOES NOT AFFECT THE VALIDITY OF A TIMELY FAIR VALUE NOTICE. HOWEVER, THE SUBMISSION OF A PROPERLY SIGNED, BLANK PROXY WILL CONSTITUTE A VOTE IN FAVOR OF APPROVING THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND A WAIVER OF STATUTORY DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.

If the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement is approved by Klein shareholders, then Klein must, pursuant to Section 302A.473, Subd. 4 of the MBCA, send a procedural notice to each dissenter who did not vote in favor of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and who timely submitted his, her or its fair value notice (and, if applicable, record holder consent), which we refer to as the procedural notice. Pursuant to Section 302A.473, Subd. 4 of the MBCA, the procedural notice must contain certain required information, including, without limitation, the address to which a dissenter must send a demand for payment in order to obtain payment for such shares and the date by which they must be received. In order to receive the fair value of his, her or its Klein shares under Section 302A.473 of the MBCA, a dissenter must demand payment within 30 days after Klein sends its procedural notice to dissenters. Under Minnesota law, notice by mail is given by a corporation when deposited in the United States mail with sufficient postage affixed.

A KLEIN SHAREHOLDER WHO FAILS TO MAKE A DEMAND FOR PAYMENT AS REQUIRED BY SECTION 302A.473, SUBD. 4, OF THE MBCA LOSES THE RIGHT TO RECEIVE THE FAIR VALUE OF HIS, HER OR ITS KLEIN SHARES UNDER SUCH SECTION

NOTWITHSTANDING THE TIMELY FILING OF NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND PAYMENT UNDER SECTION 302A.473, SUBD. 3. OF THE MBCA PRIOR TO THE SHAREHOLDER VOTE ON THE MERGER.

Except as provided below, if a demand for payment is duly made by a dissenter with Klein as required by the procedural notice, then after Klein's receipt of such demand or the Effective Date of the Merger, whichever is later, Klein must pay the dissenter an amount which Klein estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's Klein shares, with interest, if any. For the purpose of a dissenter's appraisal rights under Sections 302A.471 and 302A.473 of the MBCA, "fair value" means the value of the Klein shares immediately before the Effective Date of such Merger. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THE FAIR VALUE OF KLEIN SHARES AS DETERMINED PURSUANT TO DISSENTERS' RIGHTS PROCEDURES MAY BE DETERMINED TO BE LESS THAN THE VALUE OF THE MERGER CONSIDERATION. Additionally, "interest" means interest commencing five days after the Effective Date of such Merger until the date of payment, calculated at the rate provided in Minnesota Statutes Section 549.09, Subd. 1, Paragraph (c), clause (1), which is currently 2.3%. If a dissenter believes the payment received from Klein is less than the fair value of the Klein shares, with interest, if any, such dissenter must give written notice to Klein of his, her or its own estimate of the fair value of the Klein shares, with interest, if any, within 30 days after the date Klein remits its estimate of fair value to such dissenter by mail, which we refer to as the counter demand. The dissenter's counter demand must demand payment of the difference between his, her or its estimate and the amount remitted by Klein. If such dissenter fails to give written notice of such estimate to Klein, or fails to demand payment of the difference, within the 30-day time period, such dissenter is entitled only to the amount remitted by Klein.

Klein may withhold the remittance described in the preceding paragraph with respect to a dissenter demanding payment who was not the holder of record of Klein shares as of June 21, 2018 — the date of the first public announcement of the Merger — or who is asserting dissenters' rights on behalf of a person who was not a beneficial owner of Klein shares on such date.

If Klein and a dissenter (including both dissenters who held Klein shares on or prior to June 21, 2018, which was the date the Merger was first publicly announced, and dissenters who purchased Klein shares after such date who have complied with their respective demand requirements) do not settle the dissenter's demand within 60 days after Klein receives the dissenter's estimate of the fair value of his, her or its Klein shares, then Klein must file a petition in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the registered office of Klein is located, requesting that the court determine the statutory fair value of stock with interest, if any. All dissenters whose demands are not settled within the applicable 60-day settlement period must be made parties to this proceeding.

The court will then determine whether each dissenter in question has fully complied with the provisions of Section 302A.473 of the MBCA, and for all dissenters who have fully complied and not forfeited statutory dissenters' rights, will determine the fair value of the Klein shares, taking into account any and all factors the court finds relevant (including, without limitation, the recommendation of any appraisers which may have been appointed by the court), computed by any method that the court, in its discretion, sees fit to use, whether or not used by Klein or a dissenter. The fair value of the Klein shares as determined by the court will be binding on all dissenters. However, under the statute, dissenters will not be liable to Klein for the amount, if any, by which payments previously remitted to the dissenters exceed the fair value of such Klein shares determined by a court, with interest. The costs and expenses of such a court proceeding will be assessed against Klein, except that the court may assess part or all of those costs and expenses against a dissenter whose action in demanding payment is found to be arbitrary, vexatious or not in good faith.

Under Section 302A.471, Subd. 2 of the MBCA, a Klein shareholder may not assert dissenters' rights with respect to less than all of the shares of stock registered in such shareholder's name, unless the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by another person and discloses the name and address of such other person.

Table of Contents

Under Section 302A.471, Subd. 4 of the MBCA, a Klein shareholder has no right at law or in equity to have the Merger Agreement set aside or rescinded, except if approval or consummation of such Merger Agreement is fraudulent with respect to such shareholder or Klein.

In view of the complexity of Section 302A.471 and Section 302A.473 of the MBCA, Klein shareholders who may wish to pursue dissenters' rights should consult their legal and financial advisors.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF KLEIN IN THE MERGER

When considering the recommendation of the Klein board of directors, you should be aware that some of the directors and executive officers of Klein have interests that are different from, or in potential conflict with, your interests. The Klein board of directors was aware of these interests when it approved the Merger Agreement. Except as described below, to the knowledge of Klein, the directors and executive officers of Klein do not have any material interest in the Merger apart from their interests as shareholders of Klein.

Klein Deferred Compensation Arrangements

Klein will freeze all deferral amounts and elections for all participants in the Deferred Compensation Arrangements, which include the Klein Financial, Inc. Deferred Compensation Plan, as amended, and the deferred salary and deferred bonus agreements between Klein and each of the following executive officers: Daniel G. Klein, Alan C. Klein, James C. Klein, NanciAnn S. Olson, Ronald W. Seib and Kevin J. Valois. No additional deferrals will be allowed under the terms of these arrangements. Old National will assume all of Klein's obligations under the terms of the Deferred Compensation Arrangements and maintain the arrangements unless otherwise terminated with the consent of each of the participants.

Employee Agreements and Incentives

Old National will assume the existing change of control and other employment agreements between Klein and its subsidiaries and their respective employees, including agreements with the following executive officers: Mr. Hile, Mr. Seib, Jr., Mr. Valois, and Ms. Olson. Payments under the change in control agreements are subject to a double trigger, which requires both a change in control and a qualifying termination of employment, including a termination of employment without cause or a resignation for good reason. While a change in control will occur as a result of the Merger, it is not currently known if and when a qualifying termination might occur.

As provided in the Merger Agreement, Old National and Matthew C. Klein will use commercially reasonable efforts to enter into an employment agreement prior to the closing. Old National will assume Mr. Klein's existing employment agreement with KleinBank until all obligations thereunder have been paid to Mr. Klein and his employment agreement with Old National becomes effective. When his employment agreement with Old National becomes effective, his agreement with KleinBank will be cancelled.

Klein will pay amounts accrued but unpaid as of the closing date prorated pursuant to the terms of existing employee incentive compensation and bonus plans, including the following payments to executive officers assuming a closing date of September 30, 2018: Mr. Hile $141,000, Mr. Klein $72,188, Mr. Seib $77,438, Mr. Valois $63,000 and Ms. Olson $34,446, which reflect each officer's target bonus amounts and may be subject to adjustment based on actual performance. In addition, under the terms of Klein's Long Term Incentive Plan ("LTIP") the proposed transaction will accelerate the vesting and payment of LTIP awards. As a result of this accelerated vesting, the LTIP amounts payable to each executive officer are estimated to increase by $116,267 for Mr. Hile; $50,000 for Mr. Klein; $58,333 for Mr. Seib; $47,000 for Mr. Valois; and $18,400 for Ms. Olson, subject to adjustment based on actual performance.

Mr. Hile also has a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("SERP") with Klein, the obligations under which will be assumed by Old National. Payments under the SERP are subject to a double trigger, which requires both a change in control followed by a voluntary or involuntary separation from service prior to Mr. Hile's retirement in 2021. While a change in control will occur as a result of the Merger, it is not currently known if and when a separation from service might occur prior to 2021.

Most of the executive management team of Klein is comprised of individuals who are not Klein family members or shareholders and as a result, will not directly not participate in the shareholder value realized from the closing of the Merger. In recognition of their contribution to the creation of this shareholder value, the Executive Committee authorized transaction bonuses to be awarded to certain non-shareholder executive officers of Klein and payable upon closing of the Merger. In addition, Mr. Hile's transaction bonus recognizes his contributions in leading the sale process and includes a variable component equal to 2% of the amount by which the Merger Consideration exceeds $350.0 million. The variable component was calculated assuming Merger Consideration valued at $427.0 million, based on the $19.05 closing price of Old National common stock on the day before execution of the Merger Agreement. The transaction bonuses payable to each executive officer are $3,540,000 to Mr. Hile, of which $1,540,000 is the variable component; $750,000 to Mr. Seib; $500,000 to Mr. Valois; and $200,000 to Ms. Olson.

Potential for Future Arrangements

It is possible that continuing executive officers of Klein will enter into new compensation arrangements with Old National or its affiliates. Such arrangements may include agreements regarding future terms of employment and the right to receive equity or equity-based awards. Any such arrangements are currently expected to be entered into after the completion of the Merger. There can be no assurance that the applicable parties will reach an agreement, and the Merger is not conditioned upon any executive officer or director of Klein entering into any such agreement, arrangement or understanding.

Indemnification and Insurance of Directors and Officers

Old National has agreed that all rights to indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the Merger existing in favor of current or former directors and officers of Klein and KleinBank as provided in the articles of incorporation or by-laws of Klein and any existing indemnification agreements or arrangements disclosed to Old National shall survive the Merger and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms to the extent permitted by law, and shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years after the effective time of the Merger in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of such individuals for acts or omissions occurring or alleged to occur at or prior to the effective time of the Merger.

In addition, Old National has agreed to cause Klein's and KleinBank's directors and officers to be covered for a period of six years after the effective time of the Merger by Klein's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy (or a substitute policy obtained by Old National having the same coverages and amounts and terms and conditions that are not less advantageous to such directors and officers) with respect to acts or omissions occurring before the effective time of the Merger; provided that Old National shall not be required to spend an amount per year that is more than 200% of the annual premium paid by Klein for such insurance as of the effective time of the Merger. If the cost of insurance exceeds such limit, Old National will use its reasonable efforts to obtain as much comparable coverage as possible.

COMPARISON OF THE RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Under the Merger Agreement, Klein shareholders will exchange their shares of Klein common stock for shares of Old National common stock. Klein is organized under the laws of the State of Minnesota, and the rights of Klein shareholders are governed by the applicable laws of the State of Minnesota, including the MBCA, and the Klein Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended (the “Klein Articles”) and Amended and Restated By-Laws (the “Klein By-Laws”). Old National is organized under the laws of the State of Indiana, and the rights of Old National’s shareholders are governed by the applicable laws of the State of Indiana, including the Indiana Business Corporation Law (the “IBCL”), and Old National’s Fourth Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (the “Old National Articles”) and Amended and Restated By-Laws (the “Old National By-Laws”). In addition, as Old National common stock is listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, Old National’s corporate governance is subject to compliance with the Nasdaq Corporate Governance Rules. Upon consummation of the Merger, the Klein shareholders will become Old National shareholders, and the Old National Articles, the Old National By-Laws, the IBCL and the rules and regulations applying to public companies will govern their rights as Old National shareholders.

The following discussion is a summary of the material differences between the current rights of Old National shareholders and the current rights of Klein shareholders, but does not purport to be a complete description of those differences. These differences may be determined in full by reference to the IBCL, the MBCA, the Old National Articles, the Klein Articles, the Old National By-Laws, the Klein By-Laws and such other governing documents referenced in this summary of shareholder rights. Old National has filed with the SEC and/or made available on its corporate website its respective governing documents referenced in this summary of shareholder rights and will send copies of these documents to you, without charge, upon your request. See “Where You Can Find More Information” beginning on page 81.

additional or different series of shares and may fix the rights and preferences of said shares in any series.

Number, Classification and Qualifications of Directors

The Old National By-Laws provide that the board of directors shall be comprised of 15 members. All directors of Old National are elected for terms expiring at the next annual meeting of the shareholders and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified or such director's earlier resignation, death or removal. Any vacancy occurring on the board of directors, whether resulting from an increase in the number of directors or otherwise, may be filled by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the remaining directors then in office, even though such directors remaining in office may constitute less than a quorum of the board of directors.

The Old National Articles provide that directors need not be shareholders of Old National. The Old National By-Laws provide that a director shall not qualify to serve as such effective as of the end of the term during which he or she becomes 75 years of age. The Old National By-Laws further provide that the board of directors may establish other qualifications for directors in its Corporate Governance Guidelines in effect from time to time.

The Klein By-Laws provide that the board of directors shall consist of at least three and not more than 20 directors. The board of directors shall fix the number of directors. Directors hold office until the next regular meeting of shareholders and until such director's successor is duly elected and qualified, or until such director's earlier death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal. Any vacancy occurring on the board due to death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal of an existing director or a vacancy due to an increase in the size of the board may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even if less than a quorum. The Klein By-Laws provide that directors need not be residents of Minnesota or shareholders of Klein.

Election of Directors

Old National's directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Old National's board of directors has adopted a corporate governance policy regarding director elections that is contained in Old National's Corporate Governance Guidelines. The policy provides that in any uncontested election, any nominee for director who receives a greater number of votes "withheld" for his or her election than votes "for" such election will tender his or her resignation as a director promptly following the certification of the shareholder vote. Old National's Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of its board of directors, without participation by any director so tendering his or her resignation, will consider the resignation offer and recommend to the board of directors whether to accept it. The board of directors, without participation by any director so tendering his or her resignation, will act on the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee's recommendation no later than 90 days following the date of the annual meeting of shareholders at which the election occurred. If the board of directors decides to accept the director's resignation, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will recommend to the board of directors whether to fill the resulting vacancy or to reduce the size of the board. Old National will promptly disclose the decision of its board of directors and the reasons for the decision in a broadly disseminated press release that will also be filed with the SEC on a Form 8-K.

Removal of Directors

Under the IBCL, directors may be removed in any manner provided in the corporation's articles of incorporation. In addition, the shareholders or directors may remove one or more directors with or without cause, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. The Old National By-Laws provide that any director or the entire board of directors (exclusive of directors who may be elected by the holders of one or more series of preferred stock) may be removed, with or without cause, only by (1) the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares of Old National common stock at a meeting of shareholders called expressly for the purpose of removing one or more directors, or (2) the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the actual number of directors elected and qualified and then in office.

Pursuant to the MBCA and Klein's By-Laws, any one or all of the directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of shares entitled to vote at an election of directors; provided that, according to the MBCA, if a director has been elected solely by one class of shares, then that director may only be removed by the affirmative vote of a majority of such class.

Transactions Involving Directors

The Old National Articles allow directors to have an interest in a contract or transaction with Old National, if the interest is disclosed to or known by the board of directors, and the board authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction by a majority vote of those present, with the interested director to be counted in determining the existence of a quorum, but not in calculating a majority to approve the transaction. In addition, the IBCL allows a director to have a direct or indirect interest in a transaction with Old National if any of the following circumstances have been established: (1) the transaction was fair to Old National; (2) the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board and the board of directors or committee authorized, approved or ratified

Pursuant to the MBCA, a contract or transaction between Klein and one or more of its directors, or between Klein and an organization in or of which one or more of the Klein's directors are directors, officers, or legal representatives or have a material financial interest, is not void or voidable solely by reason of the conflict, provided that (1) the contract or transaction was, and the person asserting the validity of the contract or transaction sustains the burden of establishing that the contract or transaction was, fair and reasonable to Klein at the time it was authorized, approved, or ratified; (2) the material facts as to the contract or transaction and the director's interests are fully disclosed or known to the holders of all of Klein's outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote, and the contract or transaction the transaction; or (3) the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorized, approved or ratified the transaction. A transaction is authorized, approved or ratified under clause (2) above if it received the affirmative vote of the majority of the directors on the board or the committee who had no interest in the transaction, but a transaction may not be authorized, approved or ratified by a single director. For purposes of the shareholder vote to authorize, approve or ratify a transaction under clause (3) above, shares owned by or voted under the control of the interested director may be counted in the vote.

is approved, in good faith, by two-thirds of the Klein's disinterested shareholders entitled to vote (or by the unanimous affirmative vote of the holders of all of Klein's outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote); (3) the material facts as to the contract or transaction and the director's interests are fully disclosed or known to the Klein board of directors and (4) a majority of disinterested directors, in good faith, authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction.

Director Liability

Pursuant to the IBCL, an Old National director will not be liable to Old National shareholders for any action or failure to act in his or her capacity as director, unless the director has breached or failed to perform his or her duties as a director in good faith, with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and the breach or failure to perform these duties constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness.

Pursuant to the MBCA and the Klein Articles, a director will not be personally liable to Klein or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty. Pursuant to the MBCA, personal liability is limited, except for (1) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (2) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) under Section 302A.559 of the MBCA, which relates to illegal distributions or Section 80A.76 of the Minnesota statutes, which relates to violations of Minnesota securities laws, (4) any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit, or (5) for any act or omission occurring prior to the effective date of the personal liability of directors provision of the Klein Articles. The Klein Articles provides that no amendment to or repeal of the personal liability of directors provision of the Klein Articles shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of Klein for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

Indemnification of Directors, Officers and Employees

Under the IBCL, an Indiana corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if (1) the individual's conduct was in good faith, (2) the individual reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the corporation, that the individual's conduct was in the best interests of the corporation, and in all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests, and (3) in the case of

Pursuant to the Klein By-Laws, the corporation shall indemnify a person made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Klein or is or was serving at the request of Klein as a director, officer, employee, trustee or agent of another company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' any criminal proceeding, the individual either had reasonable cause to believe that the individual's conduct was lawful, or the individual had no reasonable cause to believe that the individual's conduct was unlawful.

Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation must indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because the director is or was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in defense of the proceeding. In addition, unless limited by its articles of incorporation, an officer of a corporation, whether or not a director, is entitled to mandatory indemnification to the same extent as a director, and a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent to the same extent as to a director.

The Old National Articles and Old National By-Laws provide that every person who is or was a director, officer or employee of Old National or any other corporation for which he is or she is or was serving in any capacity at the request of Old National shall be indemnified by Old National against any and all liability and expense that may be incurred by him or her in connection with, resulting from, or arising out of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, provided that the person is wholly successful with respect to the claim, action, suit or proceeding, or acted in good faith in what he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Old National or any other corporation for which he or she is or was serving in any capacity at the request of Old National. Old National will also indemnify each director, officer and employee acting in such capacity in connection with criminal proceedings provided the director, officer or employee had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. The indemnification by Old National extends to attorney fees, disbursements, judgments, fines, penalties or settlements. Old National may also advance expenses or undertake the defense of a director, officer or employee upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay such expenses if it should ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification.

In order for a director, officer or employee to be entitled to indemnification, the person must be wholly successful with respect to such claim or either the board of directors of Old National acting by a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to, or who fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, to the extent and under the circumstances permitted by the MBCA.

Pursuant to the MBCA, Klein shall indemnify a person made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of the former or present official capacity of the person against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding if, with respect to the acts or omissions of the person complained of in the proceeding, the person, (1) has not been indemnified by another organization for the same judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding with respect to the same acts or omissions; (2) acted in good faith; (3) received no improper personal benefit and section 302A.255, if applicable, has been satisfied; (4) in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful; and (5) in the case of acts or omissions occurring in their official capacity, reasonably believed that the conduct was not opposed to the best interests of Klein.

Pursuant to the MBCA, the articles or bylaws may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required or may impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained above including, without limitation, monetary limits on indemnification or advances of expenses, if the prohibition or conditions apply equally to all persons (or persons within a given class).

The MBCA permits Klein to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a person in that person's official capacity against any liability asserted against and incurred by the person in or arising from that capacity, whether or not the corporation would have been required to indemnify the person against the liability.

have been wholly successful with respect to such claim, action, suit or proceeding, or independent legal counsel must determine that the director, officer or employee has met the standards of conduct required by the Old National Articles.

The IBCL permits Old National to purchase insurance on behalf of its directors, officers, employees and agents against liabilities arising out of their positions with Old National, whether or not such liabilities would be within the above indemnification provisions. Pursuant to this authority, Old National maintains such insurance for the directors, officers and employees of Old National and any subsidiary of Old National.

Advance Notice Requirements for Presentation of Business and Nominations of Directors at Annual Meetings of Shareholders

The Old National By-Laws provide that nominations for the election of directors may be made only by the board of directors following the recommendation of the Old National Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. The Committee will consider candidates for election suggested by shareholders, subject to the suggestions having been made in compliance with the requirements set forth in Article IV, Section 9 of the Old National By-Laws.

Additionally, shareholders may submit proposals for business to be considered at Old National's annual meeting of shareholders, and include those proposals in Old National's proxy statement and form of proxy delivered to shareholders, in accordance with the requirements of Rule 14a-8 of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Klein By-Laws do not include provisions relating to the nomination of directors or the submission of proposals by shareholders.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

The Old National By-Laws provide that special meetings of shareholders may be called by the board of directors, the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the President of Old National, and shall be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President or the Secretary at the written request of a majority of the members of the board of directors or upon delivery to Old National's Secretary of a signed and dated written demand for a special meeting from the holders of at least 25% of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting.

The Klein By-Laws provide that special meetings of shareholders may be called by the president, by the board of directors, or by written order of at least two directors, and shall be called by the president or the secretary at the request in writing of the shareholders holding at least 10% of the shares entitled to vote. Such request shall state the purposes of the proposed meeting.

The Klein By-Laws further provide that the president or directors so calling, or the shareholders so requesting, any such meeting shall fix the time and place (if other than at the KleinBank Corporate Center) as the place for holding such meeting, which shall be not less than two (2) nor more than sixty (60) days after the receipt of such request.

Shareholder Action Without a Meeting

The Old National Articles provide that any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action is signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to it, and the consent is filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the shareholders.

The MBCA provides that an action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting by written action signed, or consented to by authenticated electronic communication, by all of the shareholders entitled to vote on the action.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and By-laws

The IBCL generally requires the approval of at least a majority of a quorum of shareholders present at a shareholders' meeting (and, in certain cases, a majority of all shares held by any voting group entitled to vote) for amendments to an Indiana corporation's articles of incorporation. However, the IBCL permits a corporation in its articles of incorporation to specify a higher shareholder vote requirement for certain amendments. Certain provisions of the Old National Articles may only be altered, amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the outstanding shares of Old National common stock, given at a meeting of shareholders duly called for that purpose, upon a proposal adopted and recommended by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire board of directors of Old National. These provisions include Article VIII, Section 11 (relating to the approval of certain business combinations), Article VIII, Section 12 (relating to the board's consideration of certain non-financial factors in the evaluation of business combinations) and Article VIII, Section 13 (relating to limitations on further purchases of shares by shareholders who own 15% or more of Old National's outstanding shares).

Pursuant to the MBCA, a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, or proposed by a shareholder or shareholders holding three percent or more of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote, that sets forth the proposed amendment to the Articles shall be submitted to a vote at the next regular or special meeting of the shareholders.

To approve an amendment to the Articles, the shareholders must approve the amendment by the affirmative vote of the holders of the greater of (1) a majority of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote on the amendment, or (2) a majority of the voting power of the minimum number of the shares entitled to vote that would constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting.

Klein's By-Laws provide that the board of directors is authorized and empowered to make and alter the By-Laws for the governance of the corporation to the full extent permitted by MBCA.

The Old National Articles and the Old National By-Laws provide that the Old National By-Laws may only be altered, amended or repealed by a majority vote of the total number of directors of Old National.

Business Combination Restrictions and Other Shareholder Limitations

Business Combinations

The Old National Articles require the affirmative vote of not less than 80% of the outstanding shares of Old National common stock to approve certain business combinations, including a merger or consolidation of Old National with or into any other corporation, which are not approved and recommended by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire board of directors of Old National. All other business combinations require the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Old National common stock. This provision of the Old National Articles may not be altered, amended or repealed except by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the outstanding shares of Old National common stock, given at a meeting of shareholders duly called for that purpose, upon a proposal adopted and recommended by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire board of directors of Old National.

In taking or declining to take any action or in making any recommendation to a corporation's shareholders with respect to any matter, the IBCL provides that directors of Indiana corporations, in their discretion, may consider both the short-term and long-term interests of the corporation, taking into account and weighing, as the directors deem appropriate, the effects of such action or inaction on the corporation's shareholders and other constituencies as well as certain interests described in the IBCL and any other factors the directors consider relevant. The Old National Articles require the board of directors, in connection with exercising its business judgment in determining what is in the best interests of Old National and its shareholders when evaluating a business combination or a tender or exchange offer, consider factors in addition to the adequacy of the financial consideration, such as the following factors and any other factors it deems relevant: the social and economic effects of the transaction on Old National and its subsidiaries, depositors, loan and other customers, creditors and other elements of the communities in which Old National and its subsidiaries operate or are located; the business and financial condition and earning prospects of the acquiring person or entity, including, but not limited to, debt service and other existing or likely financial obligations of the acquiring person or entity, and the possible effect of such conditions upon Old National and its subsidiaries and the other elements of the communities in which Old National and its subsidiaries operate or are located; and the competence, experience and integrity of the acquiring person or entity and its management. This provision of the Old National Articles may not be altered, amended or repealed except by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the outstanding shares of Old National common stock, given at a meeting of shareholders duly called for that purpose, on a proposal combination" with any "interested shareholder" for a period of four years following the interested shareholder's share acquisition date unless the business combination or the interested shareholder's acquisition of shares is approved by a committee of disinterested directors of the board of directors before the interested shareholder's share acquisition date or on the share acquisition date but prior to the interested shareholder becoming an interested shareholder on the share acquisition date.

The MBCA generally defines "business combination" to include mergers, sales or other dispositions to the interested shareholder.

The MBCA generally defines "interested shareholder" as (i) any person owning 10% or more of the outstanding voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote of the issuing public corporation or (ii) any affiliate or associate of the issuing public corporation that at any time within the four-year period immediately before the date in question, was the beneficial owner of 10% or more of the voting power of the then outstanding shares entitled to vote of the issuing public corporation.

adopted and recommended by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire board of directors of Old National.

The inclusion of the foregoing requirement in the Old National Articles, as well as the flexibility provided to directors under the IBCL to consider non-financial factors and other interests in connection with the evaluation of a business combination transaction, may place the Old National board of directors in a stronger position to oppose a business combination transaction if the board concludes that the transaction would not be in the best interests of Old National and its shareholders, even if the price offered in connection with the proposed business combination is significantly greater than the then market price of Old National's common stock. Accordingly, it may be more difficult for an acquirer to gain control of Old National in a transaction not approved by its boards of directors.

Under the business combinations provision of the IBCL, any shareholder who acquires a 10%-or-greater ownership position in an Indiana corporation with a class of voting shares registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and that has not opted-out of this provision) is prohibited for a period of five years from completing a business combination (generally a merger, significant asset sale or disposition or significant issuance of additional shares) with the corporation unless, prior to the acquisition of such 10% interest, the board of directors of the corporation approved either the acquisition of such interest or the proposed business combination. If such board approval is not obtained, then five years after a 10% shareholder has become such, a business combination with the 10% shareholder is permitted if all provisions of the articles of incorporation of the corporation are complied with and either a majority of disinterested shareholders approves the transaction or all shareholders receive a price per share determined in accordance with the fair price criteria of the business combinations provision of the IBCL.

An Indiana corporation may elect to remove itself from the protection provided by the Indiana business combinations provision, but such an election remains ineffective for 18 months and does not apply to a combination with a shareholder who acquired a 10% ownership position prior to the election. Old National has not elected to remove itself from the protections of this provision.

Control Share Acquisitions

The IBCL includes a “control share acquisition” provision. Under the control share acquisition provision, unless otherwise provided in the corporation’s articles of incorporation or by-laws, if a shareholder acquires shares of the corporation’s voting stock (referred to as control shares) within one of several specified ranges (one-fifth or more but less than one-third, one-third or more but less than a majority, or a majority or more), approval of a majority of the disinterested shareholders must be obtained before the acquiring shareholder may vote the control shares. Under certain circumstances, including in the event that shareholder approval is not obtained, the shares held by the acquirer may be redeemed by the corporation at the fair value of the shares as determined by the control share acquisition provision. Old National is subject to the control share acquisition provision. The control share acquisition provision does not apply to a plan of merger or share exchange if the corporation complies with the applicable merger provisions and is a party to the plan of merger or plan of share exchange.

Limitations on Significant Shareholders

The Old National Articles provide that shareholders who acquire 15% of the outstanding Old National common stock and who seek to acquire, directly or indirectly, additional shares of common stock in connection with a tender or exchange offer, open market purchase or business combination must offer and pay for such additional shares a consideration that is at least equal to the highest percent over market value paid to acquire Old National common stock then held by such person. Any purchases of shares in violation of this provision are null and void. This provision of the Old National Articles may not be altered, amended or repealed except by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 80% of the outstanding shares of Old National common stock, given at a meeting of shareholders duly called for that purpose, upon a proposal adopted and recommended by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the entire board of directors of Old National.

Control Share Acquisitions

Klein is not an issuing public corporation, and therefore, not subject to the following control share acquisition provision of the MBCA:

The MBCA includes a “control share acquisition” provision. Under the control share acquisition provision, unless otherwise provided in the issuing public corporation’s articles of incorporation or by-laws, if a shareholder acquires 20% or more of the corporation’s voting stock (referred to as control shares), then approval of a majority of the disinterested shareholders must be obtained before the acquiring shareholder may vote the control shares.

Limitations on Significant Shareholders

Neither the Klein Articles nor the Klein By-Laws contain limitations on significant shareholders.

Appraisal and Dissenters’ Rights

Under the IBCL, shareholders who dissent from a merger or similar transaction can exercise dissenters’ rights except (1) with respect to shares of any class or series of stock that are “covered securities” under Section 18(b)(1)(A) or (B) of the Securities Act of 1933,

Under the MBCA, shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment of fair value of the shareholder’s shares in the event of (1) an amendment to the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights or preferences of the dissenter’s shares, or (2) if they were not entitled to vote on the merger. As a result, shareholders of Old National will not be afforded dissenters' rights as long as the Old National common stock continues to be listed on a national securities exchange.

unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation; (2) a sale, lease, transfer or other disposition of property and assets of the corporation that requires shareholder approval; (3) a plan of merger; (4) a plan of exchange where the corporation's shares will be acquired by the acquiring organization; (5) a plan of conversion that is adopted and becomes effective; (6) an amendment to the articles of incorporation in connection with a class or series that reduces the number of shares of the class or series owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the corporation exercises its right to repurchase the fractional share so created; or (7) any other corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote if the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provide that shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment.

UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

General. The following is a summary of the anticipated United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger generally applicable to a U.S. Holder (as defined below) of Klein common stock with respect to the exchange of Klein common stock for Old National common stock pursuant to the Merger. This discussion assumes that U.S. Holders hold their Klein common stock as capital assets within the meaning of section 1221 of the Code. This summary is based on the Code, Treasury Regulations, judicial decisions and administrative pronouncements, each as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus. All of the foregoing are subject to change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect, and all are subject to differing interpretation. No advance ruling has been or will be sought or obtained from the IRS regarding the United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger. As a result, no assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below.

This summary does not address any tax consequences arising under tax laws other than United States federal income tax laws, nor does it address estate or gift tax laws, excise tax or the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction, nor does it address any aspect of income tax that may be applicable to non-U.S. Holders of Klein common stock, nor does it address any tax imposed on net investment income under Section 1411 of the Code or alternative minimum tax imposed under Section 55 of the Code. In addition, this summary does not address all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may apply to U.S. Holders of Klein common stock in light of their particular circumstances or U.S. Holders that are subject to special rules under the Code, such as holders of Klein common stock that are grantor trusts or testamentary trusts (and persons holding their Klein common stock through a grantor trust or testamentary trust).

For purposes of this summary, a “U.S. Holder” is a beneficial owner of Klein common stock that is for United States federal income tax purposes:

- an individual that is a United States citizen or resident alien;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States or any state therein or the District of Columbia;
- a trust if (1) the administration of which is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (2) it was in existence on August 20, 1996 and has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person; or
- an estate, the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source.

The Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. The obligations of Old National and Klein to consummate the Merger are conditioned upon the receipt of an opinion from Krieg DeVault to the effect that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

In the opinion of Krieg DeVault, the Merger will qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, with the tax consequences described below. This opinion was and will be based on facts, assumptions and representations set forth or referred to in the opinions and representations made by Old National and Klein, as well as on certain covenants, procedures and undertakings by Old National and Klein including the assumption that the Merger will be completed in the manner described in the Merger Agreement and this proxy statement and prospectus.

Table of Contents

Exchange of Klein Common Stock for Old National Common Stock. In accordance with the qualification of the Merger as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Code, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to Klein shareholders will be as follows:

- No gain or loss will be recognized by any U.S. Holder of Klein common stock on the exchange of Klein common stock for Old National common stock in the Merger;
- A U.S. Holder’s aggregate tax basis in the Old National common stock received in the Merger will be equal to the shareholder’s aggregate tax basis in such shareholder’s Klein common stock surrendered;
- A U.S. Holder’s holding period for Old National common stock received in the Merger will include the holding period of the Klein common stock surrendered in the Merger.

Under rules pertaining to the nontaxable exchange of shares, a U.S. Holder’s basis in and holding periods for shares of Old National common stock received in the Merger may vary among shares if blocks of Klein common stock surrendered in the Merger were acquired at different times or for different prices. Klein shareholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of these rules in their particular circumstances.

A U.S. Holder of Klein common stock, as a result of having received Old National common stock in the Merger, will be required to retain records pertaining to the Merger. In addition, each U.S. Holder of Klein common stock who is a “significant holder” will be required to file a statement with such holder’s U.S. federal income tax return in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.368-3(b) setting forth such holder’s basis in the Klein common stock surrendered and the fair market value of the Old National common stock received in the Merger. A “significant holder” is a holder of Klein common stock who, immediately before the Merger, owned at least 1% of the vote or value of the outstanding stock of Klein or securities of Klein with a basis for federal income tax purposes of at least $1 million.

The preceding discussion is intended only as a summary of United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger. It is not a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects that may impact you. Thus, Klein shareholders should consult their own tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them that result from the Merger, including tax return reporting and disclosure requirements, the implications and effect of federal, state, local, and other applicable tax laws and the effect and ramifications of any proposed legislation or the prospective enactment of changes in the tax laws.

PROPOSAL 2 — ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

The shareholders of Klein are being asked to approve a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies in the event that an insufficient number of shares is present in person or by proxy to approve the Merger Agreement.

Under the MBCA and the Klein By-Laws, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Klein common stock entitled to vote is required to approve the Merger Agreement. In the event that shareholder participation at the special meeting is lower than expected, Klein would like the flexibility to postpone or adjourn the meeting in order to attempt to secure broader shareholder participation. If Klein desires to adjourn the special meeting, Klein will request a motion that the special meeting be adjourned, and delay the vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement until the special meeting is reconvened. If Klein adjourns the special meeting for 30 days or less and announces at the special meeting the date, time and location at which the special meeting will be reconvened, Klein will not set a new record date or issue any other notice.

Any adjournment will permit Klein to solicit additional proxies and will permit a greater expression of the views of Klein shareholders with respect to the Merger. Such an adjournment would be disadvantageous to shareholders who are against the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement because an adjournment will give Klein additional time to solicit favorable votes and increase the chances of approving that proposal. Klein has no reason to believe that an adjournment of the special meeting will be necessary at this time.

The Klein board of directors unanimously recommends that Klein shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

ARTICLE 2

MERGER

2.1 The Merger. Under the terms of this Agreement and subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article 7, at the Effective Time, KFI will be merged with and into Acquirer. Acquirer, in its capacity as the corporation surviving the Merger, is sometimes referred to herein as the “Surviving Corporation.” The Merger will be effected pursuant to the provisions of, and with the effect provided in, the Indiana Business Corporation Law, Indiana Code 23-1-40 and Section 302A.651 of the Minnesota Business Corporation Act (the “MBCA”).

2.2 Effect of Merger.

(a) At the Effective Time, KFI will be merged with and into Acquirer, and the separate existence of KFI will cease. The Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of Acquirer, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, will be the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, until the same may be amended as provided therein and in accordance with applicable Law. The directors and officers of Acquirer immediately prior to the Effective Time will be the directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation, in each case until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and will qualify.

(b) At the Effective Time, the title to all assets, real estate and other property owned by KFI shall vest in the Surviving Corporation as set forth in Indiana Code Section 23-1-40-6, as amended, without reversion or impairment. At the Effective Time, all liabilities of KFI shall be assumed by the Surviving Corporation as set forth in Indiana Code Section 23-1-40-6, as amended.

(c) To effect the Merger, on or before the Closing Date, the parties hereto will cause the Articles of Merger substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the “Indiana Articles of Merger”) and Articles of Merger substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C (the “Minnesota Articles of Merger”) relating to the Merger to be filed with the Indiana Secretary of State and the Secretary of State of Minnesota, respectively.

(d) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions specified in this Agreement, unless otherwise mutually agreed to by the parties hereto, the closing date will occur on the last business day of the month following (i) the fulfillment of all conditions precedent to the Merger set forth in Article 7 of this Agreement and (ii) the expiration of all waiting periods in connection with the bank regulatory applications filed for the approval of the Merger (the “Closing Date”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) if the Closing Date were to occur on the last business day of November, then the Closing Date will be the last business day of December, and (ii) the Closing Date will not occur prior to September 30, 2018. The Merger will be effective as of 12:01 a.m. on the first calendar day of the month following the Closing Date (the “Effective Date”) as specified in the Indiana Articles of Merger and the Minnesota Articles of Merger (the “Effective Time”).

2.3 Reservation of Right to Revise Structure. At Acquirer’s election, the Merger may alternatively be structured so that (a) KFI is merged with and into any other direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Acquirer or (b) any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Acquirer is merged with and into KFI; provided, however, that no such change shall (x) alter or change the amount or kind of the Merger Consideration (as hereinafter defined) or the treatment of the holders of KFI Common Stock, (y) prevent KFI from obtaining the opinion of counsel referred to in Section 7.2(e) or otherwise cause the transaction to fail to qualify for the tax treatment described in Section 2.12 or (z) materially impede or delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event of such an election, the parties agree to execute an appropriate amendment to this Agreement (to the extent such amendment only changes the method of effecting the business combination and does not substantively affect this Agreement or the rights and obligations of the parties or their respective shareholders) in order to reflect such election.

2.4 Conversion of KFI Common Stock.

(a) To effectuate the Merger, at the Effective Time, and without any further action of Acquirer, KFI or any holder of KFI Common Stock, each share of KFI Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (i) shares held as treasury stock of KFI, (ii) shares held directly or indirectly by Acquirer, except shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted, if any, and (iii) Dissenting Shares (as hereinafter defined)) will be canceled and extinguished and be converted into and become a right to receive 7.92 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) (as adjusted in accordance with the terms of this Agreement) of Acquirer Common Stock (the “Merger Consideration”).

(b) Fractional shares of Acquirer Common Stock will be issued for KFI Converted Common Shares.

(c) Each share of KFI Common Stock held as treasury stock of KFI or held directly or indirectly by Acquirer (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of Indebtedness previously contracted) will be canceled, retired and cease to exist, and no exchange or payment will be made with respect thereto.

2.5 Adjustments to Acquirer Common Stock. If Acquirer changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of shares of Acquirer Common Stock issued and outstanding prior to the Effective Time by way of a stock split, stock dividend, extraordinary cash dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Acquirer Common Stock, and the record date therefor shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted so the shareholders of KFI at the Effective Time shall receive, in the aggregate, such number of shares of Acquirer Common Stock representing the same percentage of outstanding shares of Acquirer Common Stock as would have been represented by the number of shares of Acquirer Common Stock the shareholders of KFI would have received if any of the foregoing actions had not occurred. No adjustment shall be made under this Section 2.5 solely as a result of Acquirer issuing additional shares of Acquirer Common Stock provided it receives fair market value consideration for such shares or such shares are issued in connection with the Acquirer employee benefit plans.

2.6 Adjustment to Exchange Ratio. At the Effective Time, the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted, if applicable (which Exchange Ratio, as adjusted as provided below and in Section 2.5, shall become the “Exchange Ratio” for purposes of this Agreement), in accordance with this Section 2.6. If KFI Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity as of the Determination Date is less than Minimum Shareholders’ Equity, the Exchange Ratio shall be decreased to a quotient determined by dividing the Adjusted Stock Purchase Price by the total number of shares of KFI Common Stock outstanding at the Effective Time, and further dividing that number by the Acquirer Closing Date Stock Price.

2.7 Rights of Holders of KFI Common Stock; Capital Stock of Acquirer.

(a) As of the Effective Time, each outstanding stock certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented the KFI Converted Common Shares will be deemed for all purposes to evidence the right to receive the (i) Merger Consideration for each KFI Converted Common Share and (ii) any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive under Section 2.8(g). The record holder of such outstanding stock certificate will, after the Effective Time, be entitled to vote the shares of Acquirer Common Stock into which such shares of KFI Common Stock will have been converted on any matters on which the holders of record of Acquirer Common Stock, as of or on any date subsequent to the Effective Time, will be entitled to vote subject to compliance with Section 2.8. In any matters relating to such stock certificates, Acquirer may rely conclusively upon the record of shareholders maintained by KFI containing the names and addresses of the holders of record of KFI Common Stock at the Effective Time.

(b) At and after the Effective Time, each share of capital stock of Acquirer issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will remain an issued and existing share of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation and will not be affected by the Merger.

2.8 Payment and Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Payment of Merger Consideration; Exchange of Certificates. As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, but in no event later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, Acquirer will cause to be distributed to each holder of record of shares of KFI Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time which have been converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive the applicable Merger Consideration as provided in this Agreement a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to certificates shall pass only upon proper delivery of the certificates to Acquirer) with a form providing instructions and requesting usual and customary information necessary to facilitate the surrender of certificates representing such shares and effect the exchange for the Merger Consideration (including fractional shares) and any dividends or distributions which the holder thereof has the right to receive under Section 2.8(g) for each KFI Converted Common Share (a "Letter of Transmittal"). Upon receipt by Acquirer or a paying agent appointed by Acquirer of a properly completed and executed Letter of Transmittal, Acquirer or such paying agent shall cause a statement of ownership of book-entry shares representing the Merger Consideration (including fractional shares) to be delivered to such holder and payment of dividends or distributions which such holder shall be entitled to receive in the manner provided in the Letter of Transmittal. A Letter of Transmittal will be deemed received by Acquirer only if Acquirer shall have received a fully and properly completed and signed (including duly executed transmittal materials included in the Letter of Transmittal) Letter of Transmittal. No interest will be paid on any Merger Consideration that any such holder shall be entitled to receive pursuant to this Section upon such delivery.

(b) The stock transfer books of KFI shall be closed immediately upon the Effective Time and from and after the Effective Time there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer records of KFI of any shares of KFI Common Stock.

(c) Acquirer shall be entitled to rely upon KFI's stock transfer books to establish the identity of those Persons entitled to receive the Merger Consideration, which books shall be conclusive with respect thereto. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of any KFI Common Stock, Acquirer shall be entitled to deposit any Merger Consideration represented thereby in escrow with an independent third party and thereafter be relieved from any and all liability with respect to any claims thereto.

(d) Subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Letter of Transmittal, Acquirer, in the exercise of its reasonable, good faith discretion, shall have the right to make all determinations, not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, governing (i) the validity of all Letters of Transmittal and compliance by any holder of KFI Common Stock with the exchange procedures set forth herein and (ii) the method of issuance and delivery of a statement of ownership of book-entry shares representing the number of shares of Acquirer Common Stock into which shares of KFI Common Stock are converted in the Merger.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, at the Effective Time, all shares of KFI Common Stock that are held as treasury stock of KFI or owned by Acquirer (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted) shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist and no stock of KFI or other consideration shall be exchanged therefor.

(f) Lost Certificates. If any certificate representing KFI Converted Common Shares will have been lost, stolen or destroyed, Acquirer will issue and pay in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof in a form satisfactory to Acquirer or Acquirer's paying agent, as applicable, the Merger Consideration for each KFI Converted Common Share.

(g) Dividends. Until outstanding certificates formerly representing KFI Converted Common Shares are surrendered as provided in Section 2.8(a), no dividend or distribution payable to holders of record of shares of Acquirer Common Stock will be paid to any holder of such outstanding certificates, but upon surrender of such outstanding certificates by such holder, there will be paid to such holder the amount of any dividends or distributions (without interest) theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Acquirer Common Stock, but not paid to such holder, and which dividends or distributions had a record date occurring on or subsequent to the Effective Time.

(h) Failure to Surrender Certificates. If outstanding certificates formerly representing KFI Converted Common Shares are not surrendered prior to the date on which the Merger Consideration to which any holder of such shares is entitled as a result of the Merger would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity, the unclaimed Merger Consideration will, to the extent permitted by abandoned property and any other applicable Law, become the property of Acquirer (and to the extent not in Acquirer's possession, will be paid over to Acquirer), free and clear of any and all claims or interest of any Person, provided notice to KFI's representatives identified in Section 9.2 of any shares not surrendered is delivered at least sixty (60) days prior to such escheatment date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Acquirer nor any other Person will be liable to any former holder of KFI Common Stock for any amount delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws.

(i) Full Satisfaction. The Merger Consideration issued and paid upon the surrender for exchange of each KFI Converted Common Share in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement will be deemed to have been issued and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such KFI Converted Common Share.

2.9 Dissenting Shares.

(a) The holders of KFI Common Stock are entitled to dissenters' rights under Section 302A.471 of the MBCA.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, any shares of KFI Common Stock that are issued and outstanding and held by a Person (a "Dissenting Shareholder") who has demanded and perfected a demand for payment of the fair value of his, her or its shares of KFI Common Stock in accordance with Section 302A.473 of the MBCA and, as of the Effective Time, has neither effectively withdrawn nor lost his, her or its right to such demand will not represent a right to receive Merger Consideration for any share of KFI Common Stock pursuant to Section 2.4, but in lieu thereof the holder thereof will be entitled to only such rights as are granted by the MBCA.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.9(a), if any Dissenting Shareholder demanding payment of fair value of such Dissenting Shareholder's shares of KFI Common Stock ("Dissenting Shares") under the MBCA will effectively withdraw or lose (through failure to perfect or otherwise) such Dissenting Shareholder's right to demand such payment, then, as of the Effective Time or the time of such withdrawal or loss, whichever occurs later, each Dissenting Share will automatically be converted into and represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration as provided in Section 2.4 upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such Dissenting Shares.

(d) KFI will give Acquirer prompt notice of any written objection by a Dissenting Shareholder to the Merger or any demands by a Dissenting Shareholder for payment of fair value of his, her or its shares of KFI Common Stock received by KFI in accordance with Section 302A.473 of the MBCA, and Acquirer will have the right, at its expense, to direct in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands. KFI will not, except with the prior written consent of Acquirer or as otherwise required by Law, make any payment with respect to, settle, or offer to settle, any such demands. Acquirer will make any payments, settlement and offers of settlements to Dissenting Shareholders with respect to demands made pursuant to Section 302A.473 of the MBCA ("Dissenting Shareholder Payments").

2.10 The Closing. The closing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the "Closing") will take place at the offices of Acquirer located at One Main Street, Evansville, Indiana, or at a location otherwise agreed upon by Acquirer and KFI. The failure of the Closing at an agreed upon place and time will not ipso facto result in termination of this Agreement and will not relieve any party of any obligation under this Agreement.

(a) Subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, on the Closing Date, KFI will deliver to Acquirer:

5.3 Notice of Developments. KFI will promptly notify Acquirer of any emergency or other change in the Ordinary Course of Business of KFI, KleinBank or any of their respective Subsidiaries to the extent permitted by Law. KFI will promptly notify Acquirer in writing if KFI should discover that any representation or warranty made by it in this Agreement was untrue when made, has subsequently become or will be on the Closing Date untrue in any respect, provided that such inaccuracy would be reasonably anticipated to have a Material Adverse Effect on KFI, KleinBank or any of their respective Subsidiaries. No disclosure pursuant to this Section 5.3 will be deemed to amend or supplement the KFI Disclosure Schedule or to prevent or cure any inaccuracy, misrepresentation, breach of warranty or breach of agreement.

5.4 Certain Loans and Related Matters. KFI will furnish to Acquirer a complete and accurate list as of the end of each calendar month beginning with June 2018 within fifteen (15) Business Days after the end of each such calendar month, of (a) all of the periodic internal credit quality reports of KleinBank prepared during such calendar month (which reports will be prepared in a manner consistent with past practices), (b) all loans of KleinBank classified as non-accrual, as restructured, as ninety (90) days past due, as still accruing and doubtful of collection or any comparable classification, (c) all OREO, including in-substance foreclosures and real estate in judgment, (d) all new loans where the principal amount advanced exceeds $1,000,000, (e) any current repurchase obligations of KleinBank with respect to any loans, loan participations or state or municipal obligations or revenue bonds and (f) any standby letters of credit issued by KleinBank.

5.5 Financial Statements. KFI will furnish Acquirer with balance sheets of KFI and KleinBank as of the end of each calendar month beginning with June 2018 and the related statements of income, within fifteen (15) Business Days after the end of each such calendar month. Such financial statements will be prepared on a basis consistent with the Latest Balance Sheets and the Related Statements and on a consistent basis during the periods involved, and will fairly present the financial positions of KFI and KleinBank as of the dates thereof and the results of operations of KFI and KleinBank for the periods then ended.

5.6 Consents and Authorizations. KFI will use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain (at no cost to Acquirer), prior to Closing, all consents (the “Required Consents”) from Persons other than Governmental Entities necessary or reasonably desirable for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. KFI will keep Acquirer reasonably advised of the status of obtaining the Required Consents, and Acquirer will reasonably cooperate with KFI to obtain the Required Consents.

5.7 Tax Matters.

(a) KFI and KleinBank each, at its own expense, will prepare and timely file (or cause to be prepared and timely filed) all Returns required to be filed by KFI or KleinBank on or before the Effective Date and timely pay all Taxes reflected thereon. Such Returns will be prepared consistently with past practices of KFI and KleinBank to the extent such practices comply with applicable Law. No later than thirty (30) days prior to the due date (including extensions) for filing any income or franchise Returns referred to in the first sentence of this subsection (a), KFI or KleinBank, as relevant, will deliver such Returns to Acquirer for its review, comment and approval, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. KFI or KleinBank, as applicable, will make all changes and disclosures with respect to all such income and franchise Returns as are reasonably requested by Acquirer.

(b) Acquirer, at its own expense, will prepare and timely file (or cause to be prepared and timely filed) all Returns of KFI and KleinBank required to be filed after the Effective Date. Acquirer will prepare and file all such Returns in respect of a taxable period which ends on or prior to the Effective Date that are not required to be filed on or before the Effective Date, and all such Returns in respect of a taxable period which begins before and ends after the Effective Date to the extent such practices comply with applicable Law. No later than thirty (30) days prior to the due date for filing any income or franchise Returns of KFI referred to in the first sentence of this subsection (b) that KFI will file as an S corporation, Acquirer will deliver drafts of such Returns to the Shareholder Representatives for their review and comment on behalf of the Persons who were KFI shareholders during the Tax period covered by such Return. Acquirer will consider all comments in good faith and will incorporate such comments, changes or disclosures Acquirer determines acceptable, in its reasonable discretion, in the applicable Return prior to filing; provided, however, Acquirer will make any change to a Return that is required to correct an obvious error or to ensure that the Return complies with applicable Law.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Acquirer will not amend, or cause to be amended, any income or franchise Return that KFI filed as an S corporation if such amendment could result in material additional Tax Liability being imposed on any Person that was a holder of KFI Common Stock during the Tax period covered by such Return except where the amendment of such Return is required (i) by a determination within the meaning of Section 1313 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder with respect to another Return, (ii) to correct an obvious error or to apply the mitigation provisions of Section 1311 through 1314 of the Code or (iii) otherwise by applicable Law (other than an interpretation of Law by the IRS pursuant to an audit of such Return for which any proposed assessments have not yet been fully resolved).

(d) Each of Acquirer and KFI will be liable for fifty percent (50%) of any transfer, value added, excise, stock transfer, capital, stamp, recording, registration and any similar Taxes (“Transfer Tax”) that become payable in connection with the Merger and other transactions contemplated hereby. The applicable parties will cooperate in preparing and filing such forms and documents as may be necessary to permit any such Transfer Tax to be assessed and paid on or prior to the Effective Date in accordance with any available pre-sale filing procedure, and to obtain any exemption from or refund of any such Transfer Tax.

(e) KFI, KleinBank, and Acquirer will cooperate fully, as and to the extent reasonably requested by the other party, in connection with the filing of Returns pursuant to this Section 5.7 and in connection with any audit, examination, review, inquiry, Litigation or other proceeding with respect to Taxes. Such cooperation will include the retention and (upon the other party's reasonable request) the provision of records and information (including making such records and information available for review and copying) which the other party believes in good faith to be relevant to any such audit, examination, review, inquiry, Litigation or other proceeding or determination, the timely provision to the other party of powers of attorney or similar authorizations necessary to carry out the purposes of this Section 5.7, and making employees, advisers and contractors available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder. Acquirer, KFI and KleinBank agree to retain all books and records with respect to Tax matters pertinent to either KFI or KleinBank relating to any taxable period which ends on or prior to the Effective Date until the expiration of the longer or longest determination of a statute of limitations for either assessment or collection of tax (and, to the extent notified by Acquirer or its Affiliate, any extensions thereof) of the respective taxable periods that may apply to KFI or KleinBank, and to abide by all record retention agreements entered into with any Governmental Entity.

(f) From and after the date of this Agreement, KFI shall not declare and pay cash dividends to its shareholders in connection with any quarterly estimated Tax payments. Acquirer agrees to indemnify and reimburse each KFI shareholder for any tax penalties and interest payable, in the amounts indicated on the income tax returns of each such shareholder for the 2018 tax year and any subsequent tax period ending on or before the Effective Date, by offering to enter into a Tax Indemnity Letter with each KFI shareholder in the form attached as Exhibit G. Acquirer also agrees to pay KFI shareholders a tax distribution in an amount equal to the difference between the Shareholder Tax Liability reflected on the returns prepared and filed in accordance with Section 5.7(b) and the Tax dividends actually paid for the 2018 tax year and any subsequent tax period ending on or before the Effective Date, and such payments shall be made the date such returns are required to be filed without extension. For purposes of this Section "Shareholder Tax Liability" shall be an amount equal to 38.3% of the total of such shareholder's allocated components of federal taxable income, loss and deductions with respect to their ownership of KFI Common Stock, as such components would be reported on federal Schedule K-1 for the related Tax periods.

5.8 No Solicitation.

(a) Neither KFI, nor KleinBank nor any of their respective Subsidiaries will, and they will each use their best efforts to cause their officers, directors, employees, agents and authorized representatives ("Representatives") not to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate, encourage, induce or facilitate the making, submission or announcement of any Acquisition Proposal or take any action that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) furnish any information regarding either KFI, KleinBank or any of their respective Subsidiaries to any Person in connection with or in response to an Acquisition Proposal or an inquiry or indication of interest that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (iii) engage in discussions or negotiations with any Person with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or that would reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, (iv) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal or (v) enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any Contract contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Transaction; provided, however, that prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Required KFI Shareholder Vote, this Section 5.8(a) will not prohibit KFI or its Representatives from furnishing nonpublic information regarding KFI, KleinBank or their respective Subsidiaries to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any Person in response to a Superior Proposal that is submitted to KFI by such Person (and not withdrawn) if (1) neither KFI, nor KleinBank, nor any of their respective Subsidiaries nor any of their respective Representatives have violated any of the restrictions set forth in this Section 5.8(a)(i)-(v), (2) the board of directors of KFI concludes in good faith, after having consulted with and considered the advice of outside counsel to KFI, that failure to do so would be reasonably likely to result in a breach of its fiduciary obligations to KFI's shareholders under applicable Law, (3) at least two (2) Business Days prior to furnishing any such nonpublic information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such Person, KFI gives Acquirer written notice of the identity of such Person and of KFI's intention to furnish nonpublic information to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, such Person, and KFI receives from such Person an executed confidentiality agreement containing customary limitations on the use and disclosure of all nonpublic written and oral information furnished to such Person by or on behalf of KFI and (4) at least two (2) Business Days prior to furnishing any such nonpublic information to such Person, KFI furnishes such nonpublic information to Acquirer (to the extent such nonpublic information has not been previously furnished by KFI to Acquirer). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, KFI acknowledges and agrees that any violation of or the taking of any action inconsistent with any of the restrictions set forth in the preceding sentence by KFI, KleinBank, their respective Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives will be deemed to constitute a breach of this Section 5.8(a) by KFI.

(b) KFI will promptly (and in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours after receipt of any Acquisition Proposal, any inquiry or indication of interest that could lead to an Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information in connection with an Acquisition Proposal) advise Acquirer orally and in writing of any Acquisition Proposal, any inquiry or indication of interest that could lead to an Acquisition Proposal or any request for nonpublic information in connection with an Acquisition Proposal relating to KFI or KleinBank (including the identity of the Person making or submitting such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest or request, and the terms thereof) that is made or submitted by any Person prior to the Closing Date. KFI will keep Acquirer fully informed with respect to the status of any such Acquisition Proposal, inquiry, indication of interest or request and any modification or proposed modification thereto.

(c) KFI and KleinBank will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing discussions with any Person that relate to any Acquisition Proposal.

(d) KFI will not release or permit the release of any Person from, or waive or permit the waiver of any provision of, any confidentiality, "standstill" or similar agreement to which KFI is a party, and will enforce or cause to be enforced each such agreement at the request of Acquirer. KFI will promptly request each Person that has executed, within twelve (12) months prior to the date of this Agreement, a confidentiality agreement in connection with its consideration of a possible Acquisition Transaction or equity investment to return all confidential information heretofore furnished to such Person by or on behalf of KFI.

5.9 Maintenance of Allowance for Loan and Lease Losses. KFI will cause KleinBank to maintain the ALLL of KleinBank in compliance with GAAP and Regulatory Accounting Principles and KleinBank's existing methodology for determining the adequacy of the ALLL, as well as the standards established by all applicable Governmental Entities and GAAP.

5.10 KFI Forbearances. Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the prior written consent of Acquirer (which will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), during the period from the date of this Agreement to the earlier of the Effective Time and the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Article 8, KFI will not, and will not permit any KFI Subsidiary, except as may be required by applicable Law, any Governmental Order or policies imposed by any Governmental Entity, to (a) take any action that would reasonably be expected to prevent, materially impede or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (b) take, or omit to take, any action that is reasonably likely to result in any of the conditions to the Merger set forth in Article 7 not being or becoming not capable of being satisfied or (c) take any action that would render, or that reasonably would be expected to render, any representation or warranty made by KFI in this Agreement untrue at the Closing as though then made and as though the Closing Date had been substituted for the date of this Agreement in such representation or warranty.

ARTICLE 6

ADDITIONAL COVENANTS AND AGREEMENTS

6.1 The Bank Merger. To the extent not previously approved, KFI will cause the board of directors of KleinBank to approve the Bank Merger Agreement and the Bank Merger promptly after the execution of this Agreement, and will vote all of the shares of KleinBank Common Stock held by KFI in favor of approval of the Bank Merger Agreement and the Bank Merger. For the avoidance of doubt, the Bank Merger will occur simultaneously with the Merger, and will be conditioned upon regulatory approval and upon the Required KFI Shareholder Vote.

6.2 Filings and Regulatory Approvals. Acquirer will use all commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and file no later than thirty (30) days after the date of this Agreement all applications and other documents required to obtain Regulatory Approvals and consents from OCC and the MDC for the Bank Merger and waiver or approval, if required, of the FRB of the Merger. KFI will cooperate with Acquirer in the preparation and filing of all such applications and other documents. Prior to filing each application or other document with the applicable Governmental Entity, Acquirer will promptly provide KFI with an opportunity to review and comment on the non-confidential portions of each such application or other document. Each party to this Agreement will use all commercially reasonable efforts and will cooperate with the other party in taking any other actions necessary to obtain such regulatory or other approvals and consents, including participating in any required hearings or proceedings. Subject to the terms and conditions herein provided, each party will use all commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective as promptly as practicable the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Acquirer will pay, or will cause to be paid, any applicable fees and expenses (other than the fees and expenses of KFI's counsel) in connection with the preparation and filing of such regulatory filings necessary to obtain the Regulatory Approvals.

6.3 Shareholder Meeting; Registration Statement.

(a) KFI will call a special meeting of its shareholders (the "KFI Shareholder Meeting") for the purpose of voting upon this Agreement and the Merger, and will schedule such meeting based on consultation with Acquirer as soon as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective. The board of directors of KFI will recommend that the shareholders approve this Agreement and the Merger (the "KFI Board Recommendation"), and KFI will use its best efforts (including soliciting proxies for such approval) to obtain the Required KFI Shareholder Vote. In connection with the KFI Shareholder Meeting and the approval of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereunder by the holders of KFI Common Stock, KFI will distribute the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to all holders of KFI Common Stock. The KFI Board Recommendation may not be withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to Acquirer, and no resolution by the board of directors of KFI or any committee thereof to withdraw or modify the KFI Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to KFI may be adopted; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the adoption of this Agreement by the Required KFI Shareholder Vote, the board of directors of KFI may withdraw, qualify or modify the KFI Board Recommendation or approve, adopt, recommend or otherwise declare advisable any Superior Proposal made after the date hereof, if the board of directors of KFI determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that failure to do so would be likely to result in a breach of fiduciary duties under applicable Law (a "Change of KFI Board Recommendation"). In determining whether to make a Change of KFI Board Recommendation in response to a Superior Proposal or otherwise, the board of directors of KFI will take into account any changes to the terms of this Agreement proposed by Acquirer or any other information provided by Acquirer in response to such notice.

(b) For the purposes of (i) holding the KFI Shareholder Meeting and (ii) registering Acquirer Common Stock to be issued to shareholders of KFI in connection with the Merger with the SEC and with applicable state securities authorities, Acquirer will prepare, with the cooperation of KFI (which will, for the avoidance of doubt, be given the opportunity to participate in the preparation of the Registration Statement and will have the right to approve the content of the Registration Statement relating to KFI and KleinBank), a registration statement on Form S-4 (such registration statement, together with all and any amendments and supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the “Registration Statement”), which will include a proxy statement/prospectus satisfying all applicable requirements of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act and applicable Blue Sky Laws (such proxy statement/prospectus, together with any and all amendments or supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the “Proxy Statement/Prospectus”).

(c) Acquirer will furnish such information concerning Acquirer and its Subsidiaries as is necessary in order to cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Registration Statement, insofar as they relate to Acquirer and its Subsidiaries, to be prepared in accordance with Section 6.3(b). Acquirer agrees promptly to notify KFI if at any time prior to the KFI Shareholder Meeting any information provided by Acquirer in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus becomes incorrect or incomplete in any material respect, and to provide the information needed to correct such inaccuracy or omission.

(d) KFI will promptly furnish Acquirer with such information concerning KFI, KleinBank and their respective Subsidiaries as is necessary in order to cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Registration Statement, insofar as they relate to KFI, KleinBank or their respective Subsidiaries, to be prepared in accordance with Section 6.3(b), including the opinion of counsel as to Tax matters required to be filed as an exhibit thereto. KFI agrees promptly to notify Acquirer if at any time prior to the KFI Shareholder Meeting any information provided by KFI in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus becomes incorrect or incomplete in any material respect, and to provide Acquirer with the information needed to correct such inaccuracy or omission.

(e) Within forty-five (45) days after the execution of this Agreement, Acquirer will file the Registration Statement with the SEC and applicable state securities agencies. Acquirer will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause (i) the Registration Statement to become effective under the Securities Act and applicable Blue Sky Laws at the earliest practicable date and (ii) the shares of Acquirer Common Stock issuable to the shareholders of KFI to be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ or other national securities exchange. At the time the Registration Statement becomes effective, Acquirer will use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Registration Statement complies in all material respects with the provisions of the Securities Act and applicable Blue Sky Laws. KFI hereby authorizes Acquirer to utilize in the Registration Statement the information concerning KFI, KleinBank and their respective Subsidiaries provided to Acquirer for the purpose of inclusion in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Acquirer will advise KFI promptly when the Registration Statement has become effective and of any supplements or amendments thereto, and Acquirer will furnish KFI with copies of all such documents. Prior to the Effective Time or the termination of this Agreement, each party will consult with the other with respect to any material (other than the Proxy Statement/Prospectus) that might constitute a “prospectus” relating to the Merger within the meaning of the Securities Act.

(f) Acquirer agrees that none of the information relating to Acquirer and its Subsidiaries that is provided by Acquirer for inclusion in: (i) the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, any filings or approvals under applicable federal or state banking Laws or regulations or Blue Sky Laws, or any filing pursuant to the Securities Act will, at the time of mailing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to KFI’s shareholders, at the time of the KFI Shareholder Meeting and at the Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, and (ii) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

(g) KFI agrees that none of the information relating to KFI, KleinBank and their respective Subsidiaries that is provided by KFI for inclusion in: (i) the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, any approvals under applicable federal or state banking Laws or regulations or Blue Sky Laws, or any filing pursuant to the Securities Act will, at the time of mailing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to KFI's shareholders, at the time of the KFI Shareholder Meeting and at the Effective Time, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, and (ii) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

(h) Acquirer will bear the costs of all SEC filing fees with respect to the Registration Statement and the costs of qualifying the shares of Acquirer Common Stock under the Blue Sky Laws, to the extent necessary. Acquirer will also bear the costs of all NASDAQ listing fees with respect to listing the shares of Acquirer Common Stock on the NASDAQ or other national securities exchange pursuant to this Agreement. Acquirer will bear all printing and mailing costs in connection with the preparation and mailing of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to KFI and Acquirer shareholders. Acquirer and KFI will each bear their own legal and accounting expenses in connection with the preparation of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and the Registration Statement.

6.4 Establishment of Accruals.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, KFI shall and shall cause KFI Subsidiaries to make, consistent with GAAP, the rules and regulations of the SEC and applicable banking laws and regulations, such appropriate accounting entries in its books and records and use commercially reasonable efforts to take such other actions as KFI and KFI Subsidiaries shall deem to be necessary or desirable in anticipation of the Merger including, without limitation, accruals or the creation of reserves for employee benefits and Merger-related expenses.

(b) KFI recognizes that Acquirer may have adopted different loan and accounting policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of loan loss allowances). Subject to applicable Law (including without limitation applicable banking laws and regulations and GAAP) and the conditions in Section 6.4(d), from and after the date hereof KFI shall consult and cooperate in good faith with Acquirer with respect to conforming the loan and accounting policies and practices of KFI to those policies and practices of Acquirer for financial accounting and/or income tax reporting purposes, as reasonably specified in each case in writing from Acquirer to KFI, based upon such consultation.

(c) Subject to applicable Law (including without limitation applicable banking laws and regulations and GAAP) and the conditions in Section 6.4(d), KFI shall consult and cooperate in good faith with Acquirer with respect to determining, as reasonably specified in a written notice from Acquirer to KFI, based upon such consultation, the amount and the timing for recognizing for financial accounting and/or income tax reporting purposes of KFI's expenses of the Merger.

(d) Subject to applicable Law (including without limitation applicable banking laws and regulations and GAAP), KFI shall consult and cooperate in good faith to (i) make such conforming entries to conform the loan and accounting policies and practices of KFI to the policies and practices of Acquirer as contemplated in Section 6.4(b) above and (ii) recognize KFI's expenses of the Merger for financial accounting and/or income tax reporting purposes at such times as are reasonably requested in writing by Acquirer as contemplated in Section 6.4(c) above, but in no event prior to the fifth (5th) day next preceding the Closing Date.

(e) KFI's representations, warranties and covenants contained in this Agreement shall not be deemed to be untrue or breached in any respect for any purpose as a consequence of any modifications or changes undertaken on account of Section 6.4(d).

6.5 Employee Matters.

(a) General. At the request of Acquirer, and except as otherwise provided in Section 6.5(c), KFI agrees to terminate any Plans as of the Effective Time in accordance with their terms and subject to applicable Laws. If any Plans are not so terminated, after the Effective Time, Acquirer will have the right to continue, amend, merge or terminate any of such Plans in accordance with the terms thereof and subject to any limitation arising under applicable Law, including Tax qualification requirements. KFI agrees that, at the request of Acquirer, KleinBank, KFI and any Commonly Controlled Entity will cease to be a participating employer of, and will cease making contributions to or otherwise providing benefits under, any Plan, as of the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, there are any Plans for which the Surviving Corporation or any of its Subsidiaries continues to be a participating employer, Acquirer will have the right to discontinue such participation in any of such Plans in accordance with the terms thereof and subject to any limitation arising under applicable Law. Until Acquirer will take such action, however, such Plans will continue in force for the benefit of present and former employees of either of KFI or KleinBank who have any present or future entitlement to benefits under any of the Plans.

(b) Termination of KFI 401(k). Unless Acquirer directs KFI otherwise in writing, no later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the board of directors of KFI will adopt resolutions, effective immediately prior to the Effective Date, (i) permanently discontinuing contributions to and terminating the KFI 401(k) and (ii) amending the KFI 401(k), to the extent necessary, to comply with all applicable Laws. Such resolutions will provide that, as soon as administratively feasible following the Closing, but subject to any applicable regulatory requirements and receipt of any necessary regulatory approvals, the Surviving Corporation will direct the KFI 401(k) to distribute each participant's vested account balance in a single lump sum, providing each participant the option of receiving their single lump sum distribution or rolling over their vested account balance to Old National Bancorp Employee Stock Ownership and Savings Plan. KFI will also take such other actions in furtherance of the termination of the KFI 401(k) as Acquirer may reasonably require.

(c) Continuation of KFI Deferred Compensation Arrangements. Effective as of the Effective Time, KFI shall freeze the deferral amounts and deferral elections of all participants in the KFI Deferred Compensation Arrangements and allow no additional deferrals pursuant to such arrangements. Acquirer agrees to leave the KFI Deferred Compensation Arrangements in place following the Effective Time and assume and perform all obligations of KFI and its Subsidiaries pursuant to such arrangements in accordance with the terms of each such arrangement and consistent with past practices, except that Acquirer may transfer such arrangements to Acquirer's deferred compensation plan administrator and, to the extent permitted under the applicable KFI Deferred Compensation Arrangement, provide the investment options in accordance with the related terms of Acquirer's deferred compensation arrangements. After the Effective Time, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, a KFI Deferred Compensation Arrangement may only be terminated with the consent of each such KFI Deferred Compensation Arrangement's participants.

(d) Participation in Acquirer Benefit Plans. Upon the later of the Closing Date or the date upon which a former KFI employee is no longer covered by a KFI Plan, each KFI employee will be eligible to participate in the health, vacation and other non-equity based employee benefit plans of Acquirer or its Subsidiaries (the "Acquirer Plans") to the same extent as similarly situated employees of Acquirer and to the extent permitted by the applicable Acquirer Plan or applicable Law; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 6.5(c) or elsewhere in this Agreement will limit the right of Acquirer or any of its Subsidiaries to amend or terminate an Acquirer Plan at any time. With respect to the Acquirer Plans, Acquirer will, or will cause the Surviving Corporation or its Subsidiaries to: (i) with respect to each Acquirer Plan that is a medical/prescription, dental or vision plan, (x) waive any exclusions for pre-existing conditions under such Acquirer Plan that would result in a lack of coverage for any condition for which the applicable KFI employee would have been entitled to coverage under the corresponding Plan in which such KFI employee was an active participant immediately prior to his or her transfer to Acquirer Plan; (y) waive any waiting period under such Acquirer Plan, to the extent that such period exceeds the corresponding waiting period under the corresponding Plan in which such KFI employee was an active participant immediately prior to his or her transfer to Acquirer Plan (after taking into account the service credit provided for herein for purposes of satisfying such waiting period) and (z) provided the insurance company of KFI or KleinBank provides information related to the amount of such credit that is available to Acquirer, provide each KFI employee with credit for deductibles paid by such KFI employee prior to his or her transfer to an Acquirer Plan (to the same extent such credit was given under the analogous Plan prior to such transfer) in satisfying any applicable deductible or out-of-pocket requirements under such Acquirer Plan for the plan year that includes such transfer and (ii) fully recognize service of the KFI employees with either KFI or KleinBank for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting credit, and, solely with respect to vacation and severance benefits, benefit accrual in any Acquirer Plan in which the KFI employees are eligible to participate after the Closing Date, to the extent that such service was recognized for that purpose under the analogous Plan prior to such transfer. Acquirer will extend coverage to KFI employees for health care, dependent care and limited purpose health care flexible spending accounts established under Section 125 of the Code to the same extent as available to similarly situated employees of Acquirer to the extent permitted by such Acquirer Plans and applicable Law. Acquirer will give effect to any elections made by KFI employees with respect to such accounts under any flexible benefits cafeteria plan of either KFI or KleinBank to the extent permitted by such Acquirer Plan and applicable Law. KFI employees will be credited with amounts available for reimbursement equal to such amounts as were credited under any flexible benefits cafeteria plan of either KFI or KleinBank to the extent permitted by such Acquirer Plan and applicable Law. The foregoing will not apply to the extent it would result in duplication of benefits.

(e) Terminated KFI Employees. To the extent that Acquirer terminates the employment of any KFI employee without “cause” (as such term is defined in the sole discretion of Acquirer), at, or within six (6) months after, the Effective Time, and such KFI employee is not otherwise entitled to severance benefits under a separate contractual obligation with either KFI or KleinBank in effect on the date of this Agreement, Acquirer will offer such KFI employee severance benefits as provided in the Old National Bancorp Severance Pay Plan, a copy of which has been provided to KFI.

(f) KFI Employee Retention Program. Prior to the Effective Time, KFI and Acquirer will mutually agree on and establish an employee retention bonus program in the aggregate amount set forth on Schedule 6.5(f) and will allocate pursuant to such program cash awards to certain KFI employees to remain in the employ of one of KFI, KleinBank and Acquirer Bank, for non-customer contact employees through the completion of the Closing Date or within sixty (60) days following the system’s integration between KFI and KleinBank, on the one hand, and Acquirer and Acquirer Bank, on the other hand and for other employees through such date as Acquirer may reasonably establish for such employees.

(g) Transaction-Related Incentives. On the Closing Date, KFI will pay the transaction-related incentives for designated employees of KFI in the amounts set forth in the agreements described on Schedule 6.5(g).

(h) Employment Agreements and Incentives. As of the Effective Time, Acquirer shall assume the change in control and other employment agreements between KFI and its Subsidiaries and their respective employees listed in the KFI Disclosure Schedule. On the Closing Date, KFI will pay any amounts owing but not yet paid under any employee incentive compensation and bonus plan of KFI or its Subsidiaries listed in the KFI Disclosure Schedule, in the amounts accrued for payment under such plans as of the Closing Date.

(i) Affordable Care Act Reporting. As required under the Affordable Care Act, KFI, KleinBank and each Commonly Controlled Entity will accurately complete and timely file with the IRS, and timely send to all covered individuals, as applicable, any required IRS Forms 1094-B, 1095-B, 1094-C and 1095-C and all other associated or supplemental forms or notices for the 2018 calendar year with respect to each Benefit Plan that is subject to the Affordable Care Act.

(j) Limitation on Enforcement. This Agreement is an agreement solely between KFI and Acquirer. Nothing in this Agreement, including this Section 6.5, whether express or implied, confers upon any KFI employees, employees of Acquirer and its Subsidiaries or any other Person, any rights or remedies, including: (i) any right to employment or recall, (ii) any right to continued employment for any specified period or (iii) any right to any particular compensation, benefit or aggregate of benefits, or any other term or condition of employment, of any kind or nature whatsoever.

6.6 Tax Treatment. Neither KFI, KleinBank nor Acquirer will take any action that would disqualify the Merger as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1) of the Code.

6.7 Updated Schedules. KFI and Acquirer shall promptly supplement, amend and update, upon the occurrence of any change prior to the Effective Time and as of the Effective Time, the KFI Disclosure Schedule and the Acquirer Disclosure Schedule, respectively, or add any schedule or schedules, with respect to any matters or events hereafter arising or to correct any misstatement or omission which, if in existence or having occurred as of the date of this Agreement, are required to be set forth for the purpose of making the representations and warranties to which any such schedule relates true and correct in all material respects, if existing or known as of the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any updated schedule will not have the effect of making any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement true and correct in all material respects for purposes of Sections 7.2 (a) and 7.3(a) respectively. No such supplement, amendment or update shall become part of the KFI Disclosure Schedule or the Acquirer Disclosure Schedule unless Acquirer or KFI, respectively, shall have first consented in writing with respect thereto.

6.8 Indemnification; Directors’ and Officers’ Insurance.

(a) Acquirer agrees that all rights of the present and former directors and officers of either KFI or KleinBank to indemnification provided for in the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or other governing documents of KFI or KleinBank, as applicable, as in effect on the date hereof, or required under any applicable Law (including rights to advancement of expenses and exculpation), and that all such rights of the present and former directors and officers of KFI and KleinBank (to the extent such rights to indemnification are required) will survive the Merger and continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms to the extent permitted by Law, and shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of such individuals for acts or omissions occurring or alleged to have occurred at or prior to the Effective Time, for a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time (each such director, officer and employee being sometimes hereinafter referred to as an “Indemnified Party”). The Surviving Corporation will indemnify any Person made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that such Person was a director or officer of either KFI or KleinBank at or prior to the Effective Time to the fullest extent provided in, and will advance expenses in accordance with, the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and other governing documents of KFI or KleinBank, as applicable, in the form previously provided to Acquirer and effective as of the date of this Agreement, in each case subject to all the limitations set forth in such Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or other governing documents and applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.8, nothing contained in this Agreement will require Acquirer to indemnify, defend or hold harmless any Indemnified Party to a greater extent than either of KFI or KleinBank may, as of the date of this Agreement, indemnify, defend and hold harmless such Indemnified Party, and any such indemnification provided pursuant to this Section 6.8 will be provided only to the extent that such indemnification is permitted by any applicable federal or state Laws.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, KFI will or, if KFI is unable to, Acquirer as of the Effective Time will, obtain a “tail” insurance policy with a claims period of at least six (6) years from and after the Effective Time with respect to directors’ and officers’ liability insurance (collectively, “D&O Insurance”) with benefits and levels of coverage at least as favorable to the Indemnified Parties as the existing policies of KFI and KleinBank with respect to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with this Agreement or the transactions or actions contemplated hereby). Acquirer will pay the premium for such D&O Insurance tail policy provided that in no event will Acquirer be required to expend more than an amount per year equal to 200% of the annual premiums paid by KFI as of the Effective Time for such insurance (the “Insurance Amount”) provided, however, that if the cost exceeds such limit, Acquirer will use its reasonable efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as is available for the Insurance Amount.

(c) The provisions of this Section 6.8 are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party as if he or she were a party to this Agreement.

6.9 Acquirer Confidential Information. Any confidential information or trade secrets of each of Acquirer and its Subsidiaries received by either KFI, KleinBank or their respective Subsidiaries, or their respective employees or agents in the course of the negotiation and consummation of the Merger or Bank Merger will be treated confidentially and held in confidence pursuant to the NDA, and any correspondence, memoranda, records, copies, documents and electronic or other media of any kind containing either such confidential information or trade secrets or both will be destroyed by KFI, KleinBank and their respective Subsidiaries or, at Acquirer's request, returned to Acquirer if this Agreement is terminated as provided in Article 8. Such information will be maintained and held in compliance with the NDA.

6.10 Environmental. If requested by Acquirer within sixty (60) days of this Agreement, KFI will cooperate with an environmental consulting firm designated by Acquirer (and reasonably acceptable to KFI) in connection with the conduct by such firm of a Phase I Environmental Site Assessment (in accordance with a written scope of work approved by the parties using the current ASTM standard Phase I standard E1527-13) on all real property owned or leased by KFI or any KFI Subsidiary as of the date of this Agreement, and any real property acquired or leased by KFI or any KFI Subsidiary before the Closing Date. If any Phase I report discloses any current Recognized Environmental Conditions ("REC", as defined under the ASTM standard), the parties will consult and determine whether a Phase II assessment is recommended based on the finding of an REC. Acquirer shall have the right to have a Phase II environmental assessment performed on such real property. The parties shall enter into a reasonable temporary site access agreement prior to any environmental site assessment work at any property. Acquirer shall be responsible for the cost of the Phase I assessments, Acquirer shall be responsible for the cost of any Phase II assessments of property leased by KFI, and KFI and Acquirer shall each be responsible for 50% of the cost of any Phase II assessments of property owned by KFI. Acquirer shall return the properties to the same condition as present prior to their performance of any environmental site assessment work at the properties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, KFI's obligations under this paragraph and the performance of any Phase I or II assessments, shall be subject to and limited by the terms and conditions of the lease agreements applicable to any leased properties and the receipt of all appropriate lessor consents.

If the environmental consultant's good faith estimate, based upon the results of the Phase I or Phase II environmental site assessment work completed under this Agreement, of the dollar amount, if any, that KFI and KFI Subsidiaries would reasonably be required to expend under the terms of the applicable lease or applicable Environmental Laws for clean-up, remediation and penalties relating to pollutants, contaminants, wastes, toxic substances, petroleum, petroleum products and any other materials regulated under the Environmental Laws with respect to KFI's or KFI Subsidiaries' owned or leased real properties or any adjoining properties, is in excess of $3,000,000 in the aggregate, then Acquirer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(iii), which termination shall be Acquirer's sole remedy in such event.

ARTICLE 8

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

8.1 Reasons for Termination. This Agreement, by prompt written notice given to the other parties prior to or at the Closing, may be terminated:

(a) by mutual consent of the boards of directors of Acquirer and KFI;

(b) by either party:

(i) if a Law or Governmental Order will have been enacted, entered, enforced, promulgated, issued or deemed applicable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by any Governmental Entity that permanently restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits or makes illegal the Closing and such Governmental Order shall have become final and non-appealable;

(ii) if at the KFI Shareholder Meeting, this Agreement will not have been duly adopted by the Required KFI Shareholder Vote; or

(iii) if the Closing has not occurred by March 31, 2019 (the "Termination Date"), provided that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(b)(iii) shall not be available to any party whose breach of any provisions of this Agreement causes the failure of the Merger to occur on or before the Termination Date;

(c) by KFI if:

(i) Acquirer will have breached any representation, warranty or agreement of Acquirer in this Agreement in any material respect and such breach would give rise to a failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.2, and such condition is incapable of being satisfied by the Termination Date or has not been cured by Acquirer within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach is given by KFI to Acquirer;

(ii) (A) KFI will have delivered to Acquirer a written notice of the intent of KFI to enter into a merger, acquisition or other agreement (including an agreement in principle) to effect a Superior Proposal based on an Acquisition Proposal received by it, (B) five (5) Business Days have elapsed following delivery to Acquirer of such written notice by KFI, (C) during such five (5) Business Day period, KFI has fully complied with the terms of Section 5.8, including informing Acquirer of the terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal and the identity of the Person making such Acquisition Proposal, with the intent of enabling Acquirer to agree to a modification of the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that the transactions contemplated hereby may be effected, (D) at the end of such five (5) Business Day period, the board of directors of KFI will have continued reasonably to believe that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal, (E) KFI pays to Acquirer the termination fee in accordance with Section 8.4, and (F) KFI will have entered into a merger, acquisition or other agreement (including an agreement in principle) to effect a Superior Proposal or the board of directors of KFI will have resolved to do so;

(iii) by written notice by KFI to Acquirer at any time during the five-day period commencing on the Calculation Date if the Acquirer Market Value on the Calculation Date is less than $15.75, such termination to be effective on the tenth (10th) day following the Calculation Date; subject, however, to the following three sentences. If KFI elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 8.1(c)(iii), it shall give prompt written notice thereof to Acquirer. During the five (5) Business Day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, Acquirer shall have the option to increase the Exchange Ratio to equal the quotient determined by dividing the Initial Acquirer Market Value by the Acquirer Market Value on the Calculation Date, and multiplying the quotient by the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and 0.85. If within such five (5) Business Day period, Acquirer delivers written notice to KFI that it intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the preceding sentence, and notifies KFI of the revised Exchange Ratio, then no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 8.1(c)(iii), and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified). For purposes of clarification, the adjustments to the Exchange Ratio contemplated by Section 2.6 of this Agreement shall be calculated and applied subsequent to any adjustment to the Exchange Ratio pursuant to this Section 8.1(c)(iii).

For purposes of this Section 8.1(c)(iii), the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

“Acquirer Market Value” means the Volume Weighted Average Price of a share of Acquirer Common Stock for the period ending on the day immediately preceding the Calculation Date.

“Calculation Date” shall mean the first date on which all Regulatory Approvals (and waivers, if applicable) necessary for consummation of the Merger have been received (disregarding any waiting period).

“Initial Acquirer Market Value” means $18.53, adjusted as indicated in the last sentence of this Section 8.1(c)(iii).

If Acquirer declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Calculation Date, the prices for the common stock of such company shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 8.1(c)(iii).

(iv) any of the conditions set forth in Sections 7.1 or 7.2 will have become impossible to satisfy (other than through a failure of KFI to comply with its obligations under this Agreement); or

(d) by Acquirer if:

(i) KFI will have breached any representation, warranty or agreement in this Agreement in any material respect and such breach would give rise to a failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.3, and such condition is incapable of being satisfied by the Termination Date or has not been cured by KFI within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach is given by Acquirer to KFI;

(ii) There has been a Material Adverse Effect on KFI on a consolidated basis as of the Effective Time, as compared to that in existence on the date of this Agreement;

(iii) Acquirer elects to exercise its right to terminate pursuant to Section 6.10;

- (iv) If the KFI board of directors shall fail to include its recommendation to approve the Merger in the proxy statement/prospectus;
 - (A) in the event of a Change of KFI Board Recommendation;
 - (B) if the KFI board of directors shall approve any Acquisition Proposal or publicly recommend that the holders of KFI Common Stock accept or approve any Acquisition Proposal;
 - (C) if KFI shall have entered into, or publicly announced its intention to enter into, a definitive agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to any Acquisition Proposal; or
 - (D) if the KFI board of directors fails to publicly reaffirm its recommendation of this Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement within five (5) Business Days of a written request by Acquirer to provide such reaffirmation; or
 - (v) if a quorum could not be convened at the meeting of shareholders of KFI contemplated in Section 6.3 or at a reconvened meeting held at any time prior to or on the Termination Date.

8.2 Effect of Termination. Except as provided in Sections 8.3 and 8.4 and any provisions set forth herein that survive the termination of this Agreement, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.1, this Agreement will forthwith become void, there will be no Liability under this Agreement on the part of Acquirer, KFI or any of their respective Representatives or Subsidiaries, and all rights and obligations of each party hereto will cease; provided, however, that, subject to Sections 8.3 and 8.4, nothing herein will relieve any party from Liability arising out of its own fraud, willful misconduct or intentional breach of this Agreement.

8.3 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all Expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will be paid by the party incurring such Expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated. As used in this Agreement, “Expenses” will consist of all out-of-pocket expenses (including all fees and expenses of counsel, accountants, investment bankers, experts and consultants to a party hereto and its affiliates) incurred by a party in connection with or related to the authorization, preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement, the solicitation of the approval of the Merger by holders of KFI Common Stock and all other matters related to the consummation of the Merger.

8.4 Termination Fees.

- (a) If this Agreement is terminated by either party pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iii) as a result of the failure to obtain any of the Bank Regulatory Approvals and such failure is a result of a regulatory issue directly and solely related to Acquirer, Acquirer shall pay to KFI an amount in cash equal to $2,000,000 (the “KFI Termination Fee”).
- (b) KFI shall pay to Acquirer an amount in cash equal to $17,078,724 (the “Acquirer Termination Fee”) if:
 - (i) This Agreement is terminated by Acquirer pursuant to Section 8.1(d)(iv);
 - (ii) This Agreement is terminated by either party pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(ii) or Section 8.1(d)(v) and, in each case, prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after such termination KFI or KleinBank enters into any Acquisition Agreement or any Acquisition Proposal is consummated (regardless of whether such Acquisition Proposal is made or consummated before or after termination of this Agreement);
 - (iii) This Agreement is terminated by either party pursuant to Section 8.1(b)(iii) and (A) prior to the date of such termination, an Acquisition Proposal was made, and (B) prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after such termination, KFI or KleinBank enters into any Acquisition Agreement or any Acquisition Proposal is consummated; or
 - (iv) This Agreement is terminated by KFI pursuant to Section 8.1(c)(iii).

Table of Contents

(c) Any Termination Fee due under this Section 8.4 shall be paid by wire transfer of same day funds (i) in the case of Section 8.4(a) or Section 8.4(b)(i) or (iv), concurrently with such termination, and (ii) in the case of Section 8.4(b)(ii) or (iii)), on the date KFI enters into such Acquisition Agreement or consummates such Acquisition Proposal.

(d) In the event that either party owes the Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 8.4, then the payment of such amount shall be the sole and exclusive remedy for those termination events and shall constitute liquidated damages. The parties acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 8.4 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, the parties would not have entered into this Agreement. Accordingly, if either party fails to promptly pay the amounts due pursuant to this Section 8.4, and, in order to obtain such payment, a party commences a suit that results in a judgment against the other party for the amounts set forth in this Section 8.4, in addition to the amount of such judgment, the prevailing party shall be paid its reasonable costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit and any appeal relating thereto, together with interest on the amounts set forth in this Section 8.4 at the national prime rate in effect on the date such payment was required to be made.

8.5 Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing approved by the parties to this Agreement and signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto; provided, however, that Acquirer may, in its sole discretion, amend Sections 4.17 and 5.1 to increase any of the dollar thresholds contained in those sections or to relax any other requirements in those sections in order to obtain the Regulatory Approvals.

8.6 Waiver. The parties hereto may by an instrument in writing: (i) extend the time for the performance of or otherwise amend any of the covenants, conditions or agreements of the other parties under this Agreement; (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations or warranties of the other parties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto; (iii) waive the performance by the other parties of any of the covenants or agreements to be performed by it or them under this Agreement or (iv) waive the satisfaction or fulfillment of any condition, the nonsatisfaction or nonfulfillment of which is a condition to the right of the party so waiving to consummate the Merger. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of or noncompliance with any provision of this Agreement will not operate or be construed as a continuing waiver or a waiver of any other or subsequent breach or noncompliance hereunder.

9.5 Schedules.

(a) Prior to or simultaneous with the execution of this Agreement, KFI delivered to Acquirer the KFI Disclosure Schedule, which set forth, among other things, items the disclosure of which is necessary or appropriate either in response to an express disclosure requirement contained in a provision hereof or as an exception to one or more representations or warranties contained in Article 4 or to one or more covenants contained herein (whether or not such section of this Agreement expressly references a schedule thereto). Except as set forth in the Acquirer Disclosure Schedule or KFI Disclosure Schedule, the information contained therein is dated as of the close of business on the Business Day prior to the date of this Agreement or, if delivered pursuant to Section 6.7, as of such date delivered. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the mere inclusion of an item as an exception to a representation or warranty will not be deemed an admission that such item represents a material exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item has had or would be reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect. In the event of any inconsistency between the statements in this Agreement and statements in the Acquirer or KFI Disclosure Schedule, the statements in this Agreement will control and the statements in the Acquirer or KFI Disclosure Schedule will be disregarded.

As used in this Agreement, the masculine, feminine and neuter genders will be deemed to include the others if the context requires. Any singular term in this Agreement will be deemed to include the plural, and any plural term the singular if the context requires. Whenever the words “include,” “includes” or “including” are used in this Agreement, they will be deemed to be followed by the words “but not limited to,” whether or not they are in fact followed by those words or words of like import. “Writing,” “written” and comparable terms refer to printing, typing and other means of reproducing words (including electronic media) in a visible form. 9.7 Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or restriction of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the terms, provisions, covenants and restrictions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated, and the parties will negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement and to preserve each party’s anticipated benefits under this Agreement.

9.8 Complete Agreement. This Agreement and the Exhibits hereto, together with the Ancillary Documents, contain the complete agreement between the parties and supersede any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or between the parties, written or oral. Each party to this Agreement acknowledges that its respective counterparty has made no representations, warranties, agreements, undertakings or promises except for those expressly set forth in this Agreement or in any of the Ancillary Documents to which each is a party. The parties hereto agree that each party and its counsel reviewed and revised this Agreement and that the normal rule of construction to the effect that any ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party will not be employed in the interpretation of this Agreement or any amendments or exhibits hereto.

9.9 Governing Law. THE DOMESTIC LAW, WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICTS OF LAWS PRINCIPLES, OF THE STATE OF INDIANA WILL GOVERN ALL QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE CONSTRUCTION, VALIDITY AND INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT AND THE PERFORMANCE OF THE OBLIGATIONS IMPOSED BY THIS AGREEMENT.

9.10 Submission to Jurisdiction. The parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States of America located in Indiana solely in respect of the interpretation and enforcement of the provisions of this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents, and in respect of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and hereby waive, and agree not to assert, as a defense in any Litigation relating to the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement or any of the Ancillary Documents, that either of such parties is not subject thereto or that such Litigation may not be brought or is not maintainable in such courts or that the venue thereof may not be appropriate or that this Agreement or any Ancillary Document may not be enforced in or by such courts. The parties hereto irrevocably agree that all claims with respect to such Litigation will be heard and determined in such courts. The parties hereby consent to and grant any such court's jurisdiction over such parties and over the subject matter of such dispute, and agree that mailing of process or other papers in connection with any such Litigation in the manner provided in Section 9.2 or in such other manner as may be permitted by Law, will be valid and sufficient service thereof.

9.11 Specific Performance. Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that the subject matter of this Agreement, including the business, assets and properties of each of KFI, KleinBank and their respective Subsidiaries, is unique, that the other party would be damaged irreparably in the event any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms or otherwise are breached, and that the remedies at Law would not be adequate to compensate such other parties not in default or in breach. Accordingly, each of the parties agrees that the other party will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the provisions of this Agreement and to enforce specifically this Agreement and the terms and provisions of this Agreement in addition to any other remedy to which they may be entitled, at Law or in equity (without any requirement that Acquirer or KFI provide any bond or other security). EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE IT IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) IT UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH WAIVER, (III) IT MAKES SUCH WAIVER VOLUNTARILY AND (IV) IT HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVER AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.12.

9.14 No Survival of Representations. The representations, warranties and covenants made by KFI and Acquirer in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement will terminate on, and will have no further force or effect after, the first to occur of (a) the Effective Time or (b) the date on which this Agreement is terminated as set forth herein, and thereafter Acquirer, KFI and all the respective directors, officers and employees of Acquirer and KFI will have no further liability with respect thereto. (b) enter into any swap or other derivatives transaction that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic benefits or risks of ownership of Acquirer Common Stock, whether any such transaction is to be settled by delivery of Acquirer Common Stock or other securities, in cash or otherwise;

(d) publicly disclose an intention to effect any such transaction.

2. This Lock-Up Agreement will not prohibit the undersigned from making or acting to cause or permit any Trust to make (a) bona fide gifts of Acquirer Common Stock to family members or family trusts, (b) any transfer of Acquirer Common Stock for estate planning purposes to persons immediately related to such transferor by blood, marriage or adoption, or any trust solely for the benefit of such transferor and/or the persons described in the preceding clause, (c) transfers of Acquirer Common Stock to any trust, partnership, limited liability company or other entity for the direct or indirect benefit of the undersigned or the immediate family of the undersigned, or (d) transfers of Acquirer Common Stock to any entity directly or indirectly controlled by or under common control with the undersigned, provided, however, that with respect to each of the transfers described in clauses (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this sentence, prior to such transfer, the donee, distributee, transferee, or the trustee or legal guardian on behalf of any donee, distributee or transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Lock-Up Agreement. For purposes hereof, "immediate family" shall mean any relationship by blood, marriage or adoption, not more remote than first cousin.

FORM OF TAX INDEMNITY LETTER

_____, 2018
[name of recipient]
[address of recipient]

Re: Merger of Klein Financial, Inc. and Old National Bancorp--Tax Distribution Indemnification Amount

Dear [_____]:

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of June __, 2018 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and between Old National Bancorp ("Acquirer") and Klein Financial, Inc. ("KFI"), KFI will be merged with and into Acquirer, effective as of [date].

Pursuant to Section 5.7 of the Merger Agreement, KFI is not permitted to pay cash distributions after the date of the Merger Agreement to cover income tax liabilities related to your allocated federal and state taxable income in connection with your ownership of KFI Common Stock ("Tax Distributions"). Acquirer understands and acknowledges that, as a result of KFI not paying Tax Distributions for the remainder of 2018 tax year, you have not received funds from KFI to pay quarterly estimated taxes as required by applicable federal and state law and your failure to pay quarterly estimated taxes may result in the imposition of penalties and interest charges.

Acquirer agrees to indemnify you for all penalties, interest or additions to tax assessed to you as a result of a failure to pay estimated taxes on a timely basis in the amounts due in connection with the allocated components of your KFI 2018 federal and state taxable income (the "Tax Distribution Indemnification Amount"). Acquirer will pay the Tax Distribution Indemnification Amount to you no later than five days after receipt from you of the certifications described in the following paragraph. Acquirer will not pay any penalties, interest or additions to tax assessed to you as a result of a failure to pay estimated taxes on a timely basis with respect to taxable income unrelated to KFI, or if you failed to timely make the appropriate estimated tax payments in 2018 related to tax distributions from KFI with respect to the April 17, 2018 and June 15, 2018 estimated tax payments.

You must prepare and file, or cause to be prepared and filed, your federal and state income tax returns for 2018 in accordance with your past practice (to the extent such past practice complies with applicable law). If penalties, interest or any additions to tax attributable to the failure to pay estimated taxes in a timely manner in connection with the allocated components of your KFI 2018 taxable income are reported on the income tax returns as due and payable, you must provide to Acquirer a written certification of the Tax Distribution Indemnification Amount. If, after filing the relevant income tax returns, you receive notice of assessment from the tax authorities that any additional penalties, interest or additions to tax attributable to failure to pay 2018 estimated taxes in a timely manner relating to KFI 2018 taxable income are due and payable, Shareholder shall provide to Acquirer a written certification of this additional Tax Distribution Indemnification Amount. In each case, your certification as to the amount due shall be conclusive absent manifest error and include a certification that you (i) timely made the appropriate estimated tax payments in 2018 related to tax distributions from KFI with respect to the April 17, 2018 and June 15, 2018 estimated tax payments and (ii) made good faith efforts to minimize any penalties, interest and additions to tax assessed and to minimize any estimated quarterly estimated tax payments after June 15, 2018 related to KFI taxable income. Acquirer may only object to the payment of the Tax Distribution Indemnification Amount in the event that Acquirer disputes an aggregate amount of $100,000 or greater with respect to the Tax Distribution Indemnification Amount for all shareholders of KFI.

This letter summarizes the understanding and agreement of the Acquirer and you regarding the Tax Distribution Indemnification Amount. If you agree to the terms set forth in this letter please sign as indicated below and return the signed letter to the Acquirer at the address set forth above.

Very truly yours,

Former KFI Shareholder:

OPINION OF SANDLER O'NEILL + PARTNERS, L.P., FINANCIAL ADVISOR TO KLEIN

June 20, 2018

Board of Directors
Klein Financial, Inc.
1550 Audubon Road
Suite 200
Chaska, MN 55318

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Klein Financial, Inc. (“KFI”) and Old National Bancorp (“Acquirer”) are proposing to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Agreement”) pursuant to which KFI will, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement, merge with and into Acquirer with Acquirer being the surviving entity (the “Merger”). Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, each share of KFI’s common stock, no par value (“KFI Common Stock”), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, except for certain shares of KFI Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, will be converted into and become the right to receive 7.92 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of Acquirer common stock, no par value (“Acquirer Common Stock”), subject to possible adjustment as set forth in the Agreement. The Agreement provides, generally, that if the KFI Consolidated Shareholders’ Equity as of the Determination Date is less than Minimum Shareholder Equity, the Exchange Ratio shall be decreased to a quotient determined by dividing the Adjusted Stock Purchase Price by the total number of shares of KFI Common Stock outstanding at the Effective Time, and further dividing that number by the Acquirer Closing Date Stock Price. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of KFI Common Stock.

Sandler O’Neill & Partners, L.P. (“Sandler O’Neill”, “we” or “our”), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement, dated June 20, 2018; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of KFI that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Acquirer that we deemed relevant; (iv) certain internal financial projections for KFI for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of KFI; (v) publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Acquirer for the years ending December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, as well as a long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter and dividends per share for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of Acquirer; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Acquirer based on certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as well as estimated annual regulatory costs following the closing of the Merger, as provided by the senior management of Acquirer; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Acquirer Common Stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for Acquirer Common Stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for KFI and Acquirer with similar financial institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the bank industry (on a regional and nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of the management of KFI and its representatives the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of KFI and held similar discussions with certain members of the management of Acquirer and its representatives regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Acquirer.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by KFI or Acquirer or their respective representatives, or that was otherwise reviewed by us, and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied on the assurances of the respective managements of KFI and Acquirer that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of KFI or Acquirer or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of KFI or Acquirer. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of KFI or Acquirer, or of the combined entity after the Merger, and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to KFI or Acquirer. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both KFI and Acquirer are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used certain internal financial projections for KFI for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of KFI. In addition, Sandler O'Neill used publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for Acquirer for the years ending December 31, 2018 and December 31, 2019, as well as a long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter and dividends per share for the years ending December 31, 2018 through December 31, 2022, as provided by the senior management of Acquirer. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and transaction expenses, as well as estimated annual regulatory costs following the closing of the Merger, as provided by the senior management of Acquirer. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective senior managements of KFI and Acquirer confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available consensus mean analyst estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective managements as to the future financial performance of KFI and Acquirer, respectively, and the other matters covered thereby, and we assumed that the future financial performance reflected in such information would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such information, or the assumptions on which such information is based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in the respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of KFI or Acquirer since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that KFI and Acquirer will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analysis.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on KFI, Acquirer, the Merger or any related transactions, and (iii) the Merger and any related transactions will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that KFI has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement. We express no opinion as to any such matters.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, regulatory, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading value of Acquirer Common Stock at any time or what the value of Acquirer Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of KFI Common Stock.

We have acted as KFI's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon closing of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the transaction fee which will become payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. KFI has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. In the two years preceding the date hereof we have not provided any other investment banking services to KFI, nor has Sandler O'Neill provided any investment banking services to Acquirer in the two years preceding the date hereof. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Acquirer and its affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Acquirer and its affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of KFI in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of KFI as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the approval of the Agreement and the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of KFI Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of KFI to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger or any other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for KFI or the effect of any other transaction in which KFI might engage. We also do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any officer, director or employee of KFI or Acquirer, or any class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by any other shareholder. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. This opinion may not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent; provided, however, Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio is fair to holders of KFI Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

SECTIONS 302A.471 AND 302A.473 OF THE MINNESOTA BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT

302A.471 RIGHTS OF DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS

Subdivision 1. Actions creating rights. A shareholder of a corporation may dissent from, and obtain payment for the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(a) unless otherwise provided in the articles, an amendment of the articles that materially and adversely affects the rights or preferences of the shares of the dissenting shareholder in that it:

(1) alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(2) creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of the redemption of the shares, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of the shares;

(3) alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares, securities other than shares, or rights to purchase shares or securities other than shares;

(4) excludes or limits the right of a shareholder to vote on a matter, or to cumulate votes, except as the right may be excluded or limited through the authorization or issuance of securities of an existing or new class or series with similar or different voting rights; except that an amendment to the articles of an issuing public corporation that provides that section 302A.671 does not apply to a control share acquisition does not give rise to the right to obtain payment under this section; or

(5) eliminates the right to obtain payment under this subdivision;

(b) a sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of property and assets of the corporation that requires shareholder approval under section 302A.661, subdivision 2, but not including a disposition in dissolution described in section 302A.725, subdivision 2, or a disposition pursuant to an order of a court, or a disposition for cash on terms requiring that all or substantially all of the net proceeds of disposition be distributed to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of disposition;

(c) a plan of merger, whether under this chapter or under chapter 322B or 322C, to which the corporation is a constituent organization, except as provided in subdivision 3, and except for a plan of merger adopted under section 302A.626;

(d) a plan of exchange, whether under this chapter or under chapter 322B or 322C, to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired by the acquiring organization, except as provided in subdivision 3;

(e) a plan of conversion is adopted by the corporation and becomes effective;

(f) an amendment of the articles in connection with a combination of a class or series under section 302A.402 that reduces the number of shares of the class or series owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the corporation exercises its right to repurchase the fractional share so created under section 302A.423; or

(g) any other corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote with respect to which the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the board directs that dissenting shareholders may obtain payment for their shares.

Subdivision 2. Beneficial owners. (a) A shareholder shall not assert dissenters' rights as to less than all of the shares registered in the name of the shareholder, unless the shareholder dissents with respect to all the shares that are beneficially owned by another person but registered in the name of the shareholder and discloses the name and address of each beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents. In that event, the rights of the dissenter shall be determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder has dissented and the other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial owner of shares who is not the shareholder may assert dissenters' rights with respect to shares held on behalf of the beneficial owner, and shall be treated as a dissenting shareholder under the terms of this section and section 302A.473, if the beneficial owner submits to the corporation at the time of or before the assertion of the rights a written consent of the shareholder.

Subdivision 3. Rights not to apply. (a) Unless the articles, the bylaws, or a resolution approved by the board otherwise provide, the right to obtain payment under this section does not apply to a shareholder of (1) the surviving corporation in a merger with respect to shares of the shareholder that are not entitled to be voted on the merger and are not canceled or exchanged in the merger or (2) the corporation whose shares will be acquired by the acquiring organization in a plan of exchange with respect to shares of the shareholder that are not entitled to be voted on the plan of exchange and are not exchanged in the plan of exchange.

(b) If a date is fixed according to section 302A.445, subdivision 1, for the determination of shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote on an action described in subdivision 1, only shareholders as of the date fixed, and beneficial owners as of the date fixed who hold through shareholders, as provided in subdivision 2, may exercise dissenters' rights.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the right to obtain payment under this section, other than in connection with a plan of merger adopted under section 302A.613, subdivision 4 or 302A.621, is limited in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) The right to obtain payment under this section is not available for the holders of shares of any class or series of shares that is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, the NYSE MKT LLC, the NASDAQ Global Market, the NASDAQ Global Select Market, the Nasdaq Capital Market, or any successor to any such market.

(2) The applicability of clause (1) is determined as of:

(i) the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the meeting of shareholders to act upon the corporate action described in subdivision 1; or

(ii) the day before the effective date of corporate action described in subdivision 1 if there is no meeting of shareholders.

(3) Clause (1) is not applicable, and the right to obtain payment under this section is available pursuant to subdivision 1, for the holders of any class or series of shares who are required by the terms of the corporate action described in subdivision 1 to accept for such shares anything other than shares, or cash in lieu of fractional shares, of any class or any series of shares of a domestic or foreign corporation, or any other ownership interest of any other organization, that satisfies the standards set forth in clause (1) at the time the corporate action becomes effective.

Subdivision 4. Other rights. The shareholders of a corporation who have a right under this section to obtain payment for their shares, or who would have the right to obtain payment for their shares absent the exception set forth in paragraph (c) of subdivision 3, do not have a right at law or in equity to have a corporate action described in subdivision 1 set aside or rescinded, except when the corporate action is fraudulent with regard to the complaining shareholder or the corporation.

(c) “Fair value of the shares” means the value of the shares of a corporation immediately before the effective date of the corporate action referred to in section 302A.471, subdivision 1.

Subdivision 2. Notice of action. (a) If a corporation calls a shareholder meeting at which any action described in section 302A.471, subdivision 1 is to be voted upon, the notice of the meeting shall inform each shareholder of the right to dissent and shall include a copy of section 302A.471 and this section and a brief description of the procedure to be followed under these sections.

(b) In connection with a qualified offer as described in section 302A.613, subdivision 4, the constituent corporation subject to the offer may, but is not required to, send to all shareholders a written notice informing each shareholder of the right to dissent and must include a copy of this section and section 302A.471 and a brief description of the procedure to be followed under these sections. To be effective, the notice must be sent as promptly as practicable at or following the commencement of the offer, but in any event at least ten days before the consummation of the offer.

Subdivision 3. Notice of dissent. If the proposed action must be approved by the shareholders and the corporation holds a shareholder meeting, a shareholder who is entitled to dissent under section 302A.471 and who wishes to exercise dissenters’ rights must file with the corporation before the vote on the proposed action a written notice of intent to demand the fair value of the shares owned by the shareholder and must not vote the shares in favor of the proposed action. If the proposed action is to be effected pursuant to section 302A.613, subdivision 4, and the corporation has elected to send a notice of action in accordance with subdivision 2, paragraph (b), a shareholder who is entitled to dissent under section 302A.471 and who wishes to exercise dissenters’ rights must not tender the shares owned by the shareholder in response to the offer and must file with the corporation a written notice of intent to demand the fair value of the shares owned by the shareholder. Written notice must be filed with the corporation before the consummation of the offer.

Subdivision 4. Notice of procedure; deposit of shares. (a) After the proposed action has been approved by the board and, if necessary, the shareholders, the corporation shall send (i) in any case where subdivision 3 is applicable, to all shareholders who have complied with subdivision 3, (ii) in any case where a written action of shareholders gave effect to the action creating the right to obtain payment under section 302A.471, to all shareholders who did not sign or consent to a written action that gave effect to the action creating the right to obtain payment under section 302A.471, and (iii) in any other case, to all shareholders entitled to dissent, a notice that contains:

(1) the address to which a demand for payment and certificates of certificated shares must be sent in order to obtain payment and the date by which they must be received;

(2) any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares that will apply after the demand for payment is received;

(3) a form to be used to certify the date on which the shareholder, or the beneficial owner on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired the shares or an interest in them and to demand payment; and

(4) a copy of section 302A.471 and this section and a brief description of the procedures to be followed under these sections.

(b) In order to receive the fair value of the shares, a dissenting shareholder must demand payment and deposit certificated shares or comply with any restrictions on transfer of uncertificated shares within 30 days after the notice required by paragraph (a) was given, but the dissenter retains all other rights of a shareholder until the proposed action takes effect.

Subdivision 5. Payment; return of shares. (a) After the corporate action takes effect, or after the corporation receives a valid demand for payment, whichever is later, the corporation shall remit to each dissenting shareholder who has complied with subdivisions 3 and 4 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shares, plus interest, accompanied by:

- (1) the corporation's closing balance sheet and statement of income for a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the effective date of the corporate action, together with the latest available interim financial statements;
- (2) an estimate by the corporation of the fair value of the shares and a brief description of the method used to reach the estimate; and
- (3) a copy of section 302A.471 and this section, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed in demanding supplemental payment.

(b) The corporation may withhold the remittance described in paragraph (a) from a person who was not a shareholder on the date the action dissented from was first announced to the public or who is dissenting on behalf of a person who was not a beneficial owner on that date. If the dissenter has complied with subdivisions 3 and 4, the corporation shall forward to the dissenter the materials described in paragraph (a), a statement of the reason for withholding the remittance, and an offer to pay to the dissenter the amount listed in the materials if the dissenter agrees to accept that amount in full satisfaction. The dissenter may decline the offer and demand payment under subdivision 6. Failure to do so entitles the dissenter only to the amount offered. If the dissenter makes demand, subdivisions 7 and 8 apply.

(c) If the corporation fails to remit payment within 60 days of the deposit of certificates or the imposition of transfer restrictions on uncertificated shares, it shall return all deposited certificates and cancel all transfer restrictions. However, the corporation may again give notice under subdivision 4 and require deposit or restrict transfer at a later time.

Subdivision 6. Supplemental payment; demand. If a dissenter believes that the amount remitted under subdivision 5 is less than the fair value of the shares plus interest, the dissenter may give written notice to the corporation of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the shares, plus interest, within 30 days after the corporation mails the remittance under subdivision 5, and demand payment of the difference. Otherwise, a dissenter is entitled only to the amount remitted by the corporation.

Subdivision 7. Petition; determination. If the corporation receives a demand under subdivision 6, it shall, within 60 days after receiving the demand, either pay to the dissenter the amount demanded or agreed to by the dissenter after discussion with the corporation or file in court a petition requesting that the court determine the fair value of the shares, plus interest. The petition shall be filed in the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located, except that a surviving foreign corporation that receives a demand relating to the shares of a constituent domestic corporation shall file the petition in the county in this state in which the last registered office of the constituent corporation was located. The petition shall name as parties all dissenters who have demanded payment under subdivision 6 and who have not reached agreement with the corporation. The corporation shall, after filing the petition, serve all parties with a summons and copy of the petition under the Rules of Civil Procedure. Nonresidents of this state may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law. Except as otherwise provided, the Rules of Civil Procedure apply to this proceeding. The jurisdiction of the court is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint appraisers, with powers and authorities the court deems proper, to receive evidence on and recommend the amount of the fair value of the shares. The court shall determine whether the shareholder or shareholders in question have fully complied with the requirements of this section, and shall determine the fair value of the shares, taking into account any and all factors the court finds relevant, computed by any method or combination of methods that the court, in its discretion, sees fit to use, whether or not used by the corporation or by a dissenter. The fair value of the shares as determined by the court is binding on all shareholders, wherever located. A dissenter is entitled to judgment in cash for the amount by which the fair value of the shares as determined by the court, plus interest, exceeds the amount, if any, remitted under subdivision 5, but shall not be liable to the corporation for the amount, if any, by which the amount, if any, remitted to the dissenter under subdivision 5 exceeds the fair value of the shares as determined by the court, plus interest.

Subdivision 8. Costs; fees; expenses. (a) The court shall determine the costs and expenses of a proceeding under subdivision 7, including the reasonable expenses and compensation of any appraisers appointed by the court, and shall assess those costs and expenses against the corporation, except that the court may assess part or all of those costs and expenses against a dissenter whose action in demanding payment under subdivision 6 is found to be arbitrary, vexatious, or not in good faith.

(b) If the court finds that the corporation has failed to comply substantially with this section, the court may assess all fees and expenses of any experts or attorneys as the court deems equitable. These fees and expenses may also be assessed against a person who has acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in bringing the proceeding, and may be awarded to a party injured by those actions.

(c) The court may award, in its discretion, fees and expenses to an attorney for the dissenters out of the amount awarded to the dissenters, if any.
