Old National Celebrates First Better Together Volunteer Event

10/3/2022

Chicago Market supports 18 organizations with 300 ONB volunteers

CHICAGO, Oct. 03, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Old National Bank celebrated its first Better Together Volunteer Days on September 28th and 29th. The two-day event provided team members across Old National's seven-state footprint the opportunity to volunteer together in the communities where they live and work.

During the event, 1,572 ONB team members served 110 organizations by volunteering more than 5,300 hours across seven states. There were also virtual volunteer opportunities for those who could not participate in person.

"As Old National grows geographically, serving in our communities really keeps us grounded in terms of our mission as a community bank," said Kathy Schoettlin, Chief Brand & Culture Officer. "We're excited for this opportunity to help strengthen our communities through volunteerism, and we're proud of our team members for making service a real part of our company culture."

In the Chicago area, more than 300 team members volunteered at 18 community organizations totaling over 1,100 volunteer hours. The participating organizations included:
