Old National Appoints Six Market Presidents Across Illinois

2022-05-03

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 03, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Old National Bank (NASDAQ: ONB) today announced it has appointed six Market Presidents across its Illinois footprint:

---

Market
Chicago Metropolitan (City of Chicago)
Chicago Southside (Southside of Chicago and Southern Suburbs, Parts of Eastern Will County)
Northern Chicago Suburbs (Lake and McHenry Counties)
Western Chicago Suburbs (DuPage, Kane and DeKalb Counties) and Quad Cities
Southwest Chicago Suburbs (Grundey and Will Counties)

Market President
Mike Jamieson, Vice Chairman of Commercial Banking
Bob Kelly, Director of Business Banking
Connie Lavin, Group Head, Business Banking
Rick Mahoney, Group Head, Business Banking
Bob Diedrich, Senior Manager, Wealth Management
Kelly Cunningham, Community Banking Executive

The six Market Presidents lead Old National’s community brand activation efforts and work closely with local team members to determine needs and opportunities in each market. They are also responsible for fostering relationships with local centers of influence, nonprofits and government organizations, as well as decisioning local sponsorships, events and community investments. Market Presidents are appointed because of their presence in the community and have agreed to take on this role in addition to their day-to-day responsibilities.

“Throughout their careers, these six Market Presidents have been exceptional leaders who have a well-established and respected presence in their respective markets and have a demonstrated ability to collaborate with local leaders across all constituencies to benefit their communities,” said Mark Sander, President of Old National. “Their continued commitment to and deep understanding of the markets they serve make them ideal candidates to expand their leadership responsibilities and take on these important roles on behalf of Old National Bank.”
